The words "Board of Equalization and Review" shall mean the Board of Equalization and Review of the District of Columbia. (Aug. 17, 1937, ch. 690, title IX, § 1, as added May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 370, ch. 223, § 8.)

REDESIGNATION OF BOARD OF TAX APPEALS

Board of Tax Appeals redesignated as the District of Columbia Tax Court and the member thereof to be known as the judge of the District of Columbia Tax Court, see § 47-2402.

§ 47-2402. Board of Tax Appeals—District of Columbia Tax Court.

The commissioners shall appoint a board of one person, subject to removal by the commissioners, to be called the "Board of Tax Appeals for the District of Columbia," which person shall be a citizen of the United States. Such person shall be appointed for the term of ten years, except such appointment as may be made for the remainder of an unexpired term. Any vacancy caused by death, resignation, or otherwise shall be filled by the commissioners only for an unexpired term. Such person shall be eligible for reappointment. Such person shall be an attorney and in active practice of law for at least ten years next preceding his appointment.

The salary of such person so appointed shall be $17,500 per annum. The commissioners are authorized to employ such other personal services as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter and to provide for the expenses of the board. The salaries of employees other than the board shall be fixed in accordance with the Classification Act of 1949, as amended, but such employees shall be appointed without regard to civil-service requirements. The commissioners shall include in their annual estimates such amounts as may be required for the salaries and expenses herein authorized.

The Board of Tax Appeals for the District of Columbia shall hereafter be known as the District of Columbia Tax Court and the member thereof shall be known as the judge of the District of Columbia Tax Court. The said District of Columbia Tax Court shall not be deemed or held to be a constituent member of the assessing or taxing authority of the District of Columbia but shall be deemed to be an independent agency, separate and apart from such assessing and taxing authority. All references in any statute (except this paragraph) to the Board of Tax Appeals or to the Board when used in the sense of the Board of Tax Appeals for the District of Columbia, or to the member thereof shall be considered to be made to the District of Columbia Tax Court and to the judge thereof, respectively.

Whenever the judge of the District of Columbia Tax Court shall be unable to hear and determine any case, or if said judge shall disqualify himself from hearing and determining any case, or if that office should become vacant, the Commissioners are authorized in their discretion to appoint any member in good standing of the bar of the United States District Court for the District of Columbia to hear and determine such case or cases in the place and stead of the duly appointed judge, or of the duly appointed judge who has vacated that office: Provided, That, if the office of judge of the District of Columbia Tax Court shall become vacant, no such vacancy shall be deemed to exist for the purposes of this paragraph after the expiration of one hundred and twenty days, except that the person appointed to fill the temporary vacancy may and shall determine all cases the hearing of which commenced within such one hundred and twenty days. Any person appointed under this paragraph to act in the place and stead of the duly appointed judge of the District of Columbia Tax Court, or so to act while that office is vacant, shall take the oath of office and shall be paid on a per diem basis in an amount to be determined by the Commissioners and paid out of the annual appropriation for the District of Columbia Tax Court. No action taken under this paragraph shall operate to reduce the salary of the duly appointed judge of the District of Columbia Tax Court. No person employed by the United States or by the District of Columbia shall be appointed under this paragraph.

The judge of the District of Columbia Tax Court may hereafter retire—

(1) after having served as a judge of such court for a period or periods aggregating twenty years or more, whether continuously or not;

(2) after having served as a judge of such court for a period or periods aggregating ten years or more, whether continuously or not, and having attained the age of seventy years; or

(3) after having become permanently disabled from performing his duties, regardless of age or length of service.

Such judge may retire for disability by furnishing to the Commissioners of the District of Columbia a certificate of disability signed by the chief judge of the United States District Court for the District of Columbia. The judge who retires under this section shall receive annually in monthly installments, during the remainder of his life, a sum equal to such proportion of the salary received by such judge at the time of such retirement as a total of his aggregate years of service bears to the period of thirty years, the same to be paid in the same manner as the salary of such judge. In no event shall the sum received by such judge hereunder be in excess of the salary of such judge at the time of such retirement. In computing the years of service under this section, service in the Board of Tax Appeals of the District of Columbia, as heretofore constituted, shall be included whether or not such service be continuous.

(a) The term "retire" as used in this section shall mean and include retirement, resignation, or failure of reappointment upon the expiration of the term of office of incumbent.

(b) Any judge receiving retirement salary other than for disability under the provisions of this section may be called upon by the Commissioners of the District of Columbia to perform such judicial duties as may be requested of him in said court, but in any event no such retired judge shall be required to render such service for more than ninety days in any calendar year after such retirement. In case of illness or disability precluding the rendering of such service such retired judge shall be fully relieved of any such duty during such illness or disability. (Aug. 17, 1937, ch. 690, title IX, § 2, as added May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 370, ch. 223, § 8, and amended July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1108, ch. 367, title IV, § 5(a); Oct. 28, 1949, 63 Stat. 972, ch. 782, title XI, § 1106(a); July 10, 1952, 66 Stat. 547, ch. 649, § 5; July 11, 1955, 69 Stat. 290, ch. 302, § 3; July 2, 1956, 70 Stat. 485, ch. 494, § 1.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Nature of Board

The Board of Tax Appeals for the District of Columbia is not a "court" but it is an "administrative agency" to which a taxpayer seeking relief may appeal an alleged excessive assessment of the Board of Equalization and Review. Watrous v. District of Columbia (1943, 135 F. 2d 654, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 295).

The Board of Tax Appeals for the District of Columbia is an "administrative agency" established to furnish more efficient, speedy, and less expensive method of determining validity of assessments, and is "quasi judicial" in nature, but is not a "court". Lindner v. District of Columbia (1943, 32 A. 2d 540).

§ 47-2403. Appeal from assessment—Hearing and decision.

Any person aggrieved by any assessment by the District against him of any personal-property, inheritance, estate, business-privilege, gross-receipts, gross-earnings, insurance-premiums, or motor-vehicle-fuel tax or taxes, or penalties thereon, may, within ninety days after notice of such assessment, appeal from such assessment to the board, provided such person shall first pay such tax, together with penalties and interest due thereon, to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia. The mailing to the taxpayer of a statement of taxes due shall be considered notice of assessment with respect of such taxes. The board shall hear and determine all questions arising on said appeal and shall make separate findings of fact and conclusions of law, and shall render its decision thereon in writing. The board may affirm, cancel, reduce, or increase such assessment. (Aug. 17, 1937, ch. 690, title IX, § 3, as added May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 371, ch. 223, § 8, and amended July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1108, ch. 367, title IV, § 5 (b); July 10, 1952, 66 Stat. 543, ch. 649, § 3 (a).)

AMENDMENTS

1939—Act July 26, 1939, including assessment of motor-vehicle-fuel taxes.

1. Generally

Prior to creation of Board of Tax Appeals for District of Columbia, taxpayer was subject to common-law rule prohibiting challenge of tax unless involuntarily paid, and a mere statement tax is being paid under protest does not make it an "involuntary payment". Lindner v. District of Columbia (1943, 32 A. 2d 540).

2. Burden of proof

Taxpayer asserting invalidity of personal property assessment has the burden of proof. District of Columbia v. Morris (1947, 159 F. 2d 13, 81 U. S. App. D. C. 356).

3. Construction

There is no conflict between this section and § 47-1604; they are merely alternative. Rynex v. District of Columbia (1940, 114 F. 2d 842, 72 App. D. C. 386).

This section was general section applicable to all taxes referred to therein, and to all time situations which might arise, and reference to interest and penalties was used in respect of taxes whose due dates might antedate expiration of 90 days after receipt of notice of assessment within which appeal was to be taken. Id.

4. Election of remedies

As to taxpayer paying voluntarily, this chapter creating Board of Tax Appeals for District of Columbia created new right and the remedy provided by it is exclusive, but, as to taxpayer paying involuntarily within common-law meaning, remedy before the board is cumulative and such taxpayer may elect between statutory remedy and common-law remedy. Linder v. District of Columbia (1943, 32 A. 2d 540).

5. Estoppel

Taxpayer was not estopped from denying, for personal property tax purposes, the figures set up by her in her income tax returns for depreciation purposes. District of Columbia v. Morris (1947, 159 F. 2d 13, 81 U. S. App. D. C. 356).

6. Exclusiveness of remedy

A taxpayer may contest validity of tax voluntarily paid, which is a new right created by this chapter establishing Board of Tax Appeals for District of Columbia, and remedy provided by this chapter is the only remedy for such right. Linder v. District of Columbia (1943, 32 A. 2d 540).

The remedy before Board of Tax Appeals for District of Columbia, afforded an aggrieved taxpayer, is not exclusive of common law remedy. Id.

7. Exemption of real estate

Commissioners of District of Columbia had no power to exempt real estate of institutional owner where application for exemption came after property had been assessed for year, and an appeal within ninety days after the tax statement was mailed was its only remedy. Congregational Home of District of Columbia v. District of Columbia (1953, 202 F. 2d 808, 92 U. S. App. D. C. 73).

8. Jurisdiction

Where the Board of Tax Appeals for the District of Columbia was without jurisdiction of a claim for refund of part of business privilege tax because there had been no overpayment when claim was made, the stipulation of the parties could not confer jurisdiction. J. E. Dyer & Co. v. District of Columbia (1941, 115 F. 2d 945, 73 App. D. C. 52).

9. Parties

A national bank claiming that it was discriminated against by administrative application of §§ 47-1701, 47-1703, imposing tax on gross earnings of banks, was entitled to maintain proceeding before Board of Tax Appeals notwithstanding absence of bank favored by the administrative practice. Hamilton Nat. Bank v. District of Columbia (1946, 156 F. 2d 843, 81 U. S. App. D. C. 200, certiorari denied 70 S. Ct. 241, 338 U. S. 891, 94 L. Ed. 547).

10. Payment of tax

Where donee's grandsons did not pay District of Columbia inheritance tax which was required by will to be paid by residuary legatee, they were not entitled to appeal from the assessment. District of Columbia v. Fadeley et al. (1956, 233 F. 2d 667, 98 U. S. App. D. C. 176, certiorari denied 77 S. Ct. 64, 352 U. S. 847, 1 L. Ed. 2d 57).

Where corporation delivered to examiner in office of District of Columbia Assessor of Taxes, checks in respect to business privilege tax assessed against corporation, and a letter protesting the tax, and Assessor's office handed on the checks to office of Collector of Taxes, there was sufficient payment of tax to Collector to permit an appeal by corporation to District of Columbia Board of Tax Appeals. Owens-Illinois Glass Co. v. District of Columbia (1953, 204 F. 2d 29, 92 U. S. App. D. C. 15).

The requirement of this section that one who appeals to the Board of Tax Appeals for the District of Columbia shall first pay such tax is jurisdictional. Industrial Bank of Washington v. District of Columbia (1951, 188 F. 2d 46, 88 U. S. App. D. C. 233).

Under section 47-1604, providing for payment of inheritance tax within 18 months after decedent's death, and this section the payment of the tax within 90 days after receipt of notice of assessment was condition precedent to the taking of the appeal. Rynex v. District of Columbia (1940, 114 F. 2d 842, 72 App. D. C. 386).

11. Person aggrieved

Though inheritance tax of District of Columbia on certain dispositions of property was technically not assessed against legatee, assessment was "against him" for all practical purposes where he was required under terms of will to pay same, and he could appeal under this section as a "person aggrieved" by any assessment "against him." District of Columbia v. Fadeley et al. (1956, 233 F. 2d 667, 98 U. S. App. D. C. 176, certiorari denied 77 S. Ct. 64, 352 U. S. 847, 1 L. Ed. 2d 57).

Generally an executor is not "person aggrieved" for purposes of an appeal to Tax Court unless either estate as whole is directly affected by decision appealed from, or unless his individual interests are directly and personally affected thereby. Id.

12. Personal property

When personal property assessment is challenged and is brought before the Board of Tax Appeals, the issue is the correct fair cash value, not merely the basis upon which the assessor proposed his assessment. District of Columbia v. Morris (1947, 159 F. 2d 13, 81 U. S. App. D. C. 356).

13. Remedy as cumulative

Congress may provide an exclusive administrative remedy for recovery of illegally collected taxes, or abolish common-law right of action and substitute new statutory right, but, unless so declared expressly or impliedly, statutory remedy is "cumulative" of common law remedy. Linder v. District of Columbia (1943, 32 A. 2d 540).

14. Time to appeal

Requirement that appeal be taken within 90 days after notice of assessment of realty tax is jurisdictional to the appeal. Jewish War Veterans etc. v. District of Columbia (1957, 243 F. 2d 646, 100 U. S. App. D. C. 223).

Taxpayer could not toll running of 90 days period within which to appeal real estate tax assessment by merely returning to assessor the notice of assessment which taxpayer received and which determined beginning of the period. Id.

The statute requires payment of the tax within 90 days after receipt of assessment as a condition precedent to the taking of an appeal although this due date falls before the end of the 18 months provision fixed by § 47-1604. Rynex v. District of Columbia (1940, 114 F. 2d 842, 72 App. D. C. 386).

See, also, J. E. Dyer & Co. v. District of Columbia (1941, 115 F. 2d 945, 73 App. D. C. 52).

Where taxpayer overpaid its business privilege tax only because, on its own responsibility, it made incorrect returns and underpaid its personal property taxes, claim that business privilege taxes should be abated to extent of additional payment of tangible personal property taxes was barred in view of fact that appeal to Board of Tax Appeals was made more than 90 days after notice of assessment of business privilege taxes. Hecht Co. v. District of Columbia (1942, 129 F. 2d 353, 76 U. S. App. D. C. 142).

§ 47-2404. Review by court—Procedure—Decision of Board, when final—Modification or reversal.

(a) The decision of the Board may be reviewed by the court as hereinafter provided if a petition for such review is filed by either the District or the taxpayer within thirty days after the decision is rendered. Such petition for review shall be filed with the Board, and shall be in such form as the Board by regulation shall provide. Upon such review the court shall have the power to affirm, modify, or reverse the decision of the Board with or without remanding the case for hearing as justice may require. The court shall have the exclusive jurisdiction to review the decisions of the Board in the same manner and to the same extent as decisions of the United States District Court for the District of Columbia in civil actions tried without a jury; and the judgment of the court shall be final, except that it shall be subject to review by the Supreme Court of the United States upon certiorari in the manner provided in title 28, United States Code, section 1254, as amended. The court is authorized to adopt rules for the filing of the record on review, the preparation of the record for review, and the conduct of the proceedings upon such review.

(b) The board is authorized to fix a fee, not in excess of the fee usually charged and collected therefor by the clerk of the United States District Court for the District of Columbia, for comparing and preparing the transcript of record, and to fix charges for supplying copies of testimony or copies of other documents and papers. The fees and charges so fixed shall be paid to the collector of taxes of the District and deposited in the treasury of the United States to the credit of the District of Columbia.

(c) The decision of the board shall become final (1) upon the expiration of the time allowed for filing a petition for review, if no such petition be duly filed within such time; or (2) upon the expiration of time allowed for filing of petition for certiorari if the decision of the board has been affirmed or the petition for review dismissed by the court, or no petition for certiorari has been filed; or (3) upon denial of a petition for certiorari if the decision of the board has been affirmed or the petition for review dismissed by the court; or (4) upon the expiration of thirty days from the date of issuance of the mandate of the Supreme Court, if such Court directs that the decision of the board be affirmed or the petition for review dismissed.

(d) If the Supreme Court directs that the decision of the board be modified or reversed, the decision of the board rendered in accordance with the mandate of the Supreme Court shall become final upon the expiration of thirty days from the time it was rendered unless within such thirty days either the District or the taxpayer has instituted proceedings to have such decision corrected to accord with the mandate, in which event the decision of the Board shall become final when so corrected.

(e) If the decision of the board is modified or reversed by the court and if (1) the time allowed for filing a petition for certiorari has expired and no such petition has been filed, or (2) the petition for certiorari has been denied, or (3) the decision of the court has been affirmed by the Supreme Court, then the decision of the board rendered in accordance with the mandate of the court shall become final upon the expiration of thirty days from the time such decision of the board was rendered, unless within such thirty days either the District or the taxpayer has instituted proceedings to have such decision corrected so that it will accord with the mandate, in which event the decision of the board shall become final when so corrected.

(f) If the Supreme Court orders a rehearing, or if the case is remanded by the court for rehearing and if (1) the time allowed for filing of a petition for certiorari has expired and no such petition has been duly filed; or (2) the petition for certiorari has been denied; or (3) the decision of the court has been affirmed by the Supreme Court, then the decision of the board rendered upon such rehearing shall become final in the same manner as though no prior decision of the board had been rendered.

(g) As used in this section the term "mandate," in case a mandate has been recalled prior to the expiration of thirty days from the date of the issuance thereof, means the final mandate. (Aug. 17, 1937, ch. 690, title IX, § 4, as added May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 371, ch. 223, § 8, and amended June 25, 1948, 62 Stat. 991, ch. 646, § 32 (b); May 24, 1949, 63 Stat. 107, ch. 139, § 127; July 10, 1952, 66 Stat. 544, ch. 649, § 3 (b).)

REDESIGNATION OF BOARD OF TAX APPEALS

Board of Tax Appeals redesignated as the District of Columbia Tax Court and the member thereof to be known as the judge of the District of Columbia Tax Court, see § 47-2402.

AMENDMENT

1952—Subsec. (a) amended by act July 10, 1952, which substituted "the court shall have the power to affirm, modify, or reverse the decision of the Board" for "the court shall have the power to affirm, or if the decision of the Board is not in accordance with law, to modify or reverse the decision of the Board", "decisions of the Board in the same manner and to the same extent as decisions of the United States District Court for the District of Columbia in civil actions tried without a jury; and" for "decisions of the Board, and", and "title 28, United States Code, section 1254" for "section 347, Title 28, U.S. Code", and eliminated provisions which stated that the findings of fact by the Board shall have the same effect as a finding of fact by an equity court or a verdict of a jury.

CHANGE OF NAME

Act June 25, 1948, eff. Sept. 1, 1948, as amended by act May 24, 1949, substituted "United States District Court for the District of Columbia" for "District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Administrative review 1
Conclusions of law 2
Conclusiveness of findings 3
Payment under protest 4
Questions not raised below 5
Remand 6
Time for filing petition 7

1. Administrative review

Except in cases of absolute exemption, the tax exemption in each year is dependant on the use to which property is put, and original determination of exemption or absence thereof is largely an administrative question for the assessing authorities, and administrative review is available to the Tax Court and review of its decision is available in the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia. Workshop Center of the Arts v. District of Columbia (D.C. Mun. App. 1958, 145 A. 2d 571).

2. Conclusions of law

The District of Columbia Tax Court's conclusions of law, even if considered factual, are not binding on Court of Appeals if clearly erroneous. District of Columbia v. Seven-Up Washington, Inc. (1954, 214 F. 2d 197, 93 U. S. App. D. C. 272, certiorari denied 74 S. Ct. 851, 347 U. S. 989, 98 L. Ed. 1123).

3. Conclusiveness of findings

In proceedings to review assessment of inheritance tax in the District of Columbia, involving question of whether decedent was domiciled in Florida or in the District, Court of Appeals, convinced that Board of Tax Appeals was clearly wrong in finding that decedent was domiciled in the District, could not set aside board's determination. District of Columbia v. Pace (1944, 64 S. Ct. 406, 320 U. S. 698, 88 L. Ed. 408).

Rule 52 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, U. S. Code, title 28, Appendix, relating to review of findings of fact generally would not supersede special statutory measure of review of decisions of Board of Tax Appeals of District of Columbia. Id.

The Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia has power to review decisions of Board of Tax Appeals for the District as under equity practice in which whole case, both facts and law, are open for consideration, subject to rule that findings of fact are treated as presumptively correct and accepted unless clearly wrong. Id.

In proceeding for review of decision of District of Columbia Board of Tax Appeals that decedent died domiciled in District of Columbia so as to subject his property to inheritance taxes imposed by District of Columbia Code, and that decedent had not retained domicile in state from which he had come to District of Columbia to work for the Government, findings of Board were required to be accepted when not clearly wrong. Weitzknecht v. District of Columbia (1952, 195 F. 2d 570, 90 U. S. App. D. C. 291, certiorari denied 73 S. Ct. 47, 344 U. S. 837, 97 L. Ed. 651).

Where taxpayer was organized for purpose of lending money on realty but it acquired realty by foreclosure, finding of Board of Tax Appeals that the realty was held primarily for sale to customers in ordinary course of business, so that profits on sales were taxable as ordinary income and not as profits derived from sale of "capital assets", was not clearly wrong and could not be disturbed. Real Estate Mortgage & Guaranty Corporation v. District of Columbia (1944, 141 F. 2d 361, 78 U. S. App. D. C. 390).

A finding of fact by Board of Tax Appeals for District of Columbia will not be disturbed on appeal unless clearly erroneous. Connecticut Ave. Cafe v. District of Columbia (1948, 169 F. 2d 304, 83 U. S. App. D. C. 272).

4. Payment under protest

When taxpayer who had been previously taxed on basis of his equitable interest in marginal stocks but is then reassessed by tax authorities for full value, a payment under protest raises the question whether such new assessment was without authority of law. Hunt v. District of Columbia (1940, 108 F. 2d 10, 71 App. D. C. 143).

5. Questions not raised below

On taxpayer's petition to review decision of Board of Tax Appeals for the District of Columbia redetermining petitioner's income tax for 1939 imposed by District of Columbia, petitioner could not question the amount of its gross receipts found by the District and the Board of Tax Appeals where no such question was raised before the Board, and petitioner had stipulated that the only issue was the correctness of the District's action in using the ratio of District sales to total sales as the sole basis for apportioning petitioner's net income. Eastman Kodak Co. v. District of Columbia (1942, 131 F. 2d 347, 76 U. S. App. D. C. 339).

6. Remand

A remainder interest under a trust, under applicable regulation, in absence of evidence relating to value filed with assessor, would not be deemed to establish a presumption conclusive in the Tax Court that such remainder was without value, but under such regulation remainderman had burden of introducing such evidence as would enable Tax Court to find market value of remainder was less than figure on which tax was assessed, but in view of remainderman's misinterpretation of such regulation, decision denying him relief would be set aside and remanded to permit remainderman to introduce evidence of market value. The Alabama Polytechnic Institute v. District of Columbia (1958, 250 F. 2d 408, 102 U. S. App. D. C. 83).

The United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia, upon finding invalid the prevailing administrative practice in assessment of gross earnings tax against banks in District of Columbia, remanded case with instructions to cancel assessment unless tax assessor upon re-examination of entire subject removed discriminations. Hamilton Nat. Bank v. District of Columbia (1946, 156 F. 2d 843, 81 U. S. App. D. C. 200, certiorari denied 70 S. Ct. 241, 338 U. S. 890, 94 L. Ed. 546).

Where taxpayer pleaded that proposed valuations of personal property were in excess of fair cash value of property, an issue of fact was presented which should have been resolved by a finding and the lack of a finding and conclusion on the point required the remandment of the case to Board of Tax Appeals. District of Columbia v. Morris (1947, 159 F. 2d 13, 81 U. S. App. D. C. 356).

7. Time for filing petition

Where District of Columbia Board of Tax Appeals on April 30, 1951, rendered decision on corporation's appeal in respect to business privilege tax, and corporation filed review petition which was served on District of Columbia on May 31 shortly before Board closed its office at 4:45 p. m., and the District with knowledge of sole member of Board, who had been consulted by telephone at his home, put cross-petition for review under door of Board's office an hour later, District's cross-petition was timely filed within this section requiring petition for review to be filed by District or taxpayer within 30 days after decision. Owens-Illinois Glass Co. v. District of Columbia (1953, 204 F. 2d 29, 92 U. S. App. D. C. 15).

TRANSFER OF FUNCTIONS

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Authority to reduce

The Board of Tax Appeals for the District of Columbia has authority to reduce an assessment of real property made by Board of Assistant Assessors and approved by Board of Equalization and Review, notwithstanding the absence of a showing that the assessment is capricious or arbitrary or so at variance with true value as to be actually or constructively fraudulent. Watrous v. District of Columbia (1943, 135 F. 2d 654, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 295).

Where each lot was assessed at $4,008 and Board of Tax Appeals found value in money of each lot to be $3,500, the Board had power to reduce the assessment, notwithstanding absence of showing that assessment was capricious or arbitrary, under § 47-2403 providing that the Board may affirm, cancel, reduce or increase assessment. Id.

§ 47-2406. Appeal from imposition of tax involuntarily paid—Suit.

Any taxpayer who shall have paid within three years immediately preceding August 17, 1937, any tax to the District involuntarily, and under circumstances which according to law would entitle such taxpayer to the right to sue at law for the recovery of such tax, may within ninety days from May 16, 1938, appeal from the imposition of such tax in the same manner and to the same extent as set forth in sections 47-2403, 47-2404. (Aug. 17, 1937, ch. 690, title IX, § 6, as added May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 374, ch. 223, § 8.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Dismissal of appeal 1
Payment to avoid revocation of license 2

1. Dismissal of appeal

Dismissal of appeal by Board of Tax Appeals where the tax was voluntarily paid. General Elec. Co. v. District of Columbia (1940, 110 F. 2d 261, 71 App. D. C. 321).

2. Payment to avoid revocation of license

A corporation licensed to do business in the district which is assessed a tax on its earnings and fails to pay the sum until it receives from the assessor a rule to show cause why their license should not be revoked, and then pays the tax and penalty under protest to avoid revocation of their license, pays the tax involuntarily, entitling it to sue for the recovery of the tax under this act. Panitz v. District of Columbia (1940, 112 F. 2d 39, 72 App. D. C. 131).

A claim for refund of taxes filed on the ninety-first day was on time, where the ninetieth day fell on Sunday. Sherwood Bros., Inc. v. District of Columbia (1940, 113 F. 2d 162, 72 App. D.C. 155).

(Aug. 17, 1937, ch. 690, title IX, § 7, as added May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 374, ch. 223, § 8.)

Such summons may be served by any member of the Metropolitan police department. If any person having been personally summoned shall neglect or refuse to obey the summons issued as herein provided, then and in that event the board may report that fact to the United States District Court for the District of Columbia or one of the judges thereof, and said court or any judge thereof hereby is empowered to compel obedience to said summons to the same extent as witnesses may be compelled to obey the subpoenas of that court. (Aug. 17, 1937, ch. 690, title IX, § 9, as added May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 375, ch. 223, § 8, and amended June 25, 1948, 62 Stat. 991, ch. 646, § 32 (a), (b); May 24, 1949, 63 Stat. 107, ch. 139, § 127.)

§ 47-2410. Certain suits forbidden.

No suit shall be filed to enjoin the assessment or collection by the District of Columbia or any of its officers, agents, or employees of any tax. (Aug. 17, 1937, ch. 690, title IX, § 10, as added May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 375, ch. 223, § 8.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Adequate remedy at law 1
Maintenance of suit 3
Offer of payment 2

1. Adequate remedy at law

Where taxpayer had an adequate remedy at law by payment of the gross receipts tax, claim for refund, and either appeal to the District of Columbia Tax Court or civil action therein, suit for injunction against collection of the tax would not lie. D. C. Transit System Inc. v. Pearson, Collector of Taxes etc., et al. (1958, 250 F. 2d 765, 102 U. S. App. D. C. 102).

Fact that owner of household furniture and personal effects, and that holder of lien on such personalty, considered costs incurred in proceedings for collection for personal property taxes against personalty to be excessive, did not provide basis to enjoin Collector of Taxes from having personalty sold for personal property taxes, at least where there was no showing that there were no appropriate remedies at law. Pearson v. Laughlin (1951, 190 F. 2d 658, 89 U. S. App. D. C. 130).

Where plaintiff in action to enjoin sale of furniture and personal effects for property taxes had only a lien on property, so that plaintiff's claims furnished no basis for saying distraint was illegal, and Collector of Taxes had given assurances that sale would be subject to outstanding liens, sale would not be enjoined. Id.

2. Offer of payment

Where holder of liens on household furniture and personal effects offered to give Collector of Taxes an uncertified check for taxes assessed against personalty, but there was no offer to pay interest or expenses, and offer was made on non-business day, over telephone, while trucks and men were at hand to move personalty to auction rooms, and during preceding business week lien holder had asserted existence of his outstanding liens on personalty, and had subsequently asserted absolute ownership in himself, and at no time during such week had lien holder tendered payment of taxes, Collector was justified in refusing to stay orderly course of collection proceedings, and refusal to Collector to accept offer did not preclude sale of personalty for taxes. Pearson v. Laughlin (1951, 190 F. 2d 658, 89 U. S. App. D. C. 130).

3. Maintenance of suit

Statutory ban against injunction to restrain collection of taxes is more honored in the breach than in the observance, and upon a showing of considerations that appeal to discretion of court of equity, suit for injunction may be entertained and determination of validity of tax made in such summary and expeditious manner. D. C. Transit System, Inc. v. Pearson et al. (1957, 149 F. Supp. 18).

Where District of Columbia was seeking to collect gross receipts tax from successor of recipient, action to enjoin distraint of successor's property to enforce payment could be maintained. Id.

§ 47-2411. Manner of serving notices.

Any notice authorized or required under the provisions of this chapter may be given by mailing the same to the person for whom it is intended, addressed to such person at the address given in any return filed by him, or, if no return has been filed, then to his last-known address. The proof of mailing of any notice mentioned in this chapter shall be presumptive evidence of the receipt of the same by the person to whom addressed. Any period of time which must be determined under the provisions of this chapter by the giving of notice shall commence to run from the date of mailing of such notice. (Aug. 17, 1937, ch. 690, title IX, § 11, as added May 16, 1938, 52 Stat. 375, ch. 223, § 8.)

§ 47-2412. Reference by Commissioners to the Board.

In any matter affecting taxation, the determination of which is by law left to the discretion of the commissioners, the commissioners may, if they so elect, refer such matter to the board to make findings of fact and submit recommendations, such findings of fact and recommendations, if any, to be advisory only and not binding on the commissioners, and shall be without prejudice to the commissioners to make such further and other inquiry and investigation concerning such matter as they in their discretion shall consider necessary or advisable. (Aug. 17, 1937, ch. 690, title IX, § 13, as added July 26, 1939, 53 Stat. 1110, ch. 367, title IV, § 5 (c).)

REDESIGNATION OF BOARD OF TAX APPEALS

Board of Tax Appeals redesignated as the District of Columbia Tax Court and the member thereof to be known as the judge of the District of Columbia Tax Court, see § 47-2402.

§ 47-2413. Overpayments—Board of Tax Appeals.

(a) Where there has been an overpayment of any tax, the amount of such overpayment shall be refunded to the taxpayer. No such refund of taxes other than inheritance and estate taxes shall be allowed after two years from the date the tax is paid unless before the expiration of such period a claim therefor is filed by the taxpayer. The amount of refund of taxes other than inheritance and estate taxes shall not exceed the portion of the tax paid during the two years immediately preceeding the filing of the claim, or if no claim is filed, then during the two years immediately preceding the allowance of the refund. No such refund of inheritance and estate taxes shall be allowed after three years from the date the tax is paid unless before the expiration of such period a claim therefor is filed by the taxpayer. The amount of refund of any such inheritance and estate taxes shall not exceed the portion of the tax paid during the three years immediately preceding the filing of the claim, or if no claim is filed, then during the three years immediately preceding the allowance of the refund. Every claim for refund must be in writing under oath, must state the specific grounds upon which the claim is founded and must be filed with the Assessor. If the Assessor disallows all or any part of the claim for refund, he shall send to the taxpayer by registered or certified mail a notice of such disallowance. Within ninety days after the mailing of the notice of disallowance, if the claim is acted upon within six months after the filing thereof, or within ninety days after the termination of such six months' period, if the claim is not acted upon within such period, the taxpayer may appeal to the Board, in the same manner and to the same extent as set forth in sections 47-2403 and 47-2404: Provided, That this subsection shall not apply to the taxes imposed by sections 47-1501 to 47-1548; by sections 47-1551 to 47-1595; or by sections 47-2601 to 47-2629 and 47-2701 to 47-2713, refunds of which are otherwise provided for by law; and that it shall not apply to the real estate tax.

(b) In any proceeding under this chapter, the Board of Tax Appeals for the District of Columbia shall have jurisdiction to determine whether there has been any overpayment of tax and to order that such overpayment be credited or refunded to the taxpayer: Provided, That a timely refund claim has been filed. Where a notice of assessment is mailed to the taxpayer on or before the last day on which a timely claim for refund could be filed, an appeal filed within ninety days after the mailing of such notice asserting an overpayment shall, for the purposes of this subsection, be deemed to be a timely claim for refund.

(c) The remedies provided to the taxpayer under this chapter shall not be deemed to take away from the taxpayer any remedy which he might have under any other provision of law, but no suit for the recovery of an overpayment of any tax shall be instituted in any court if the taxpayer has elected to file an appeal with respect to such overpayment with the Board of Tax Appeals for the District of Columbia under this chapter.

(d) Any other provision of law to the contrary notwithstanding, if it shall be determined by the Assessor, the Board of Tax Appeals for the District of Columbia, or any court having jurisdiction over the subject matter that there has been an overpayment of any tax, whether as a deficiency or otherwise, interest shall be allowed and paid upon such overpayment of tax at the rate of 4 per centum per annum from the date such overpayment was paid until the date of refund: Provided, That with respect to that part of any overpayment which was not assessed and paid as a deficiency or as additional tax such interest shall be allowed and paid only from the date of filing a claim for refund, a petition to the Board, or a complaint with a court of competent jurisdiction, as the case may be.

(e) For the purposes of this section, any interest or penalties paid by the taxpayer in connection with an overpayment of tax shall be deemed to be a part of such overpayment of tax. (Aug. 17, 1937, ch. 690, title IX, § 14, as added July 10, 1952, 66 Stat. 546, ch. 649, § 4, and amended June 11, 1960, 74 Stat. 204, Pub. L. 86-507, § 1(56); June 27, 1960, 74 Stat. 224, Pub. L. 86-528, § 1.)

AMENDMENT

1960—Subsec. (a) amended by act June 27, 1960, to increase the period for refund of estate and inheritance taxes from two years to three years from the date the tax is paid.

Subsec. (a) amended by act June 11, 1960, which inserted words "or by certified mail" following "registered mail."

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Limitations

Where claim for refund of a District of Columbia estate tax was not filed within two years of payment of the tax, Tax Court had no jurisdiction to decide anything, and if it had jurisdiction it had no authority to do otherwise than deny petitioner's claim in view of this section providing no refund of an overpayment shall be allowed after two years from date the tax is paid unless before the expiration of such period, claim therefor is filed by the taxpayer. American Security and Trust Co. etc. v. District of Columbia (1956, 235 F. 2d 19, 98 U. S. App. D. C. 260).

§ 47-2414. Reestablishment of Board.

Notwithstanding the provisions of the Reorganization Act of 1949 and notwithstanding the provisions of Reorganization Plan Numbered 5 of 1952, relating to the District of Columbia, the Board of Tax Appeals for the District of Columbia shall not be abolished, and, if prior to July 10, 1952, it has been abolished, it is hereby reestablished. In either event, the functions of the said Board of Tax Appeals transferred to the Board of Commissioners of the District of Columbia by said Reorganization Plan Numbered 5 of 1952 are hereby retransferred to said Board of Tax Appeals or to said Board of Tax Appeals as hereby reestablished, to be exercised in the same manner, to the same extent, and under the same provisions of law as if said Reorganization Plan Numbered 5 had never gone into effect, except only as such provisions of law may be modified by this Act.

All petitions, answers, or other pleadings, documents, or papers filed with, and all actions taken by, and all decisions rendered by, the person, persons, office, or agency to which said Board of Commissioners may have redelegated the functions of said Board of Tax Appeals, between the effective date of said Reorganization Plan Numbered 5 and July 10, 1952, shall have the same force and effect for all purposes as if filed with, taken by, or rendered by, said Board of Tax Appeals or said Board of Tax Appeals as hereby reestablished.

If, prior to July 10, 1952, the said Board of Tax Appeals shall have been abolished, the said Board of Commissioners shall appoint an individual to act as the member of the said Board of Tax Appeals as hereby reestablished, said appointment to be made in accordance with the provisions of section 47-2402. NOTES TO DECISIONS

Constitutionality 1
Prior contract 2

1. Constitutionality

The imposition of a new tax or increase in the rate of an old one is one of the usual hazards of business, and it does not ordinarily impair the obligation of a pre-existing contract. McShain, Inc. v. District of Columbia (1953, 205 F. 2d 882, 92 U. S. App. D. C. 358, certiorari denied 74 S. Ct. 227, 346 U. S. 900, 98 L. Ed. 400).

2. Prior contract

Where personal property was purchased by contractor subsequent to passage of this chapter, fact that construction contracts with reference to which purchases were made had been entered into before passage of this chapter did not absolve contractor from payment of the use tax, since it is the purchase or use itself, and not the signing of the contracts ultimately necessitating the purchase, which is the taxable event. McShain, Inc. v. District of Columbia (1953, 205 F. 2d 882, 92 App. D. C. 358, certiorari denied 74 S. Ct. 227, 346 U. S. 900, 98 L. Ed. 400).

§ 47-2603. Reimbursement of vendor for tax.

Reimbursement for the tax imposed upon the vendor shall be collected by the vendor from the purchaser on all sales the gross receipts from which are subject to the tax imposed by this chapter so far as it can be done. It shall be the duty of each purchaser in the District to reimburse the vendor, as provided in section 47-2604, for the tax imposed by this chapter. Such reimbursement of tax shall be a debt from the purchaser to the vendor and shall be recoverable at law in the same manner as other debts. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 115, ch. 146, title I, § 126.)

§ 47-2604. Rate of tax.

For the purpose of collecting his reimbursement as provided in section 47-2603 insofar as it can be done and yet eliminate the fractions of a cent, the vendor shall add to the sales price and collect from the purchaser the following amounts:

(a) On each sale, other than sales of food for human consumption off the premises where such food is sold, and other than sales or charges for rooms, lodgings, or accommodations furnished to transients, where the sales price is from 14 cents to 63 cents, both inclusive, 1 cent; on each such sale where the sales price is from 64 cents to $1.13, both inclusive, 2 cents; and on each 50 cents of sales price or fraction thereof of such sale in excess of $1.13, 1 cent.

(b) On each sale of food for human consumption off the premises where such food is sold where the sales price is from 28 cents to $1.27, both inclusive, 1 cent; on each such sale where the sales price is from $1.28 to $2.27, both inclusive, 2 cents; and on each $1 of sales price or fraction thereof of such sale in excess of $2.27, 1 cent.

(c) On each sale or charge for rooms, lodgings, or accommodations, furnished to transients, 3 per centum of the sales price.

(May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 115, ch. 146, title I, § 127; May 18, 1954, 68 Stat. 118, ch. 218, title XIII, § 1304.)

AMENDMENTS

1954—Act May 18, 1954, consolidated former subsecs. (a), (b), and (c) and redesignated them as subsec. (a), and added subsecs. (b) and (c).

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1954 AMENDMENT

Amendment of section by act May 18, 1954, effective on and after the first day of the first month succeeding the 60th day after May 18, 1954, see section 1309 of act May 18, 1954, set out as a note under § 47-2601.

§ 47-2605. Exemptions.

Gross receipts from the following sales shall be exempt from the tax imposed by this chapter:

(a) Sales to the United States or the District or any instrumentality thereof except sales to national banks and Federal savings and loan associations.

(b) Sales to a State or any of its political subdivisions if such State grants a similar exemption to the District. As used in this subsection, the term "State" means the several States, Territories, and possessions of the United States.

(c) Sales to a semipublic institution: Provided, however, That such sales shall not be exempt unless (1) such institution shall have first obtained a certificate from the Assessor stating that it is entitled to such exemption, and (2) the vendor keeps a record of the sales price of each such separate sale, the name of the purchaser, the date of each such separate sale, and the number of such certificate.

(d) (1) Repealed. May 18, 1954, 68 Stat. 118, ch. 218, title XIII, § 1305.

(g) Sales of newspapers and publications of semi-public institutions as defined in paragraph 18 of section 47-2601.

(h) Casual and isolated sales by a vendor who is not regularly engaged in the business of making sales at retail.

(k) Sales of goods made pursuant to bona fide contracts entered into before May 27, 1949: Provided, That there is a contract in writing signed by the purchaser and vendor which imposes an unconditional liability on the part of the purchaser to buy the goods covered thereby at a fixed price and without escalator clause, and an unconditional liability on the part of the vendor to deliver a definite quantity of such goods at the contract price.

(l) Sales of natural or artificial gas, oil, electricity, solid fuel, or steam, directly used in manufacturing, assembling, processing, or refining.

(m) Sales which a State would be without power to tax under the limitations of the Constitution of the United States.

(q) Sales of cigarettes.

(r) Sales of material to be incorporated permanently in any war memorial authorized by Congress to be erected on public grounds of the United States. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 115, ch. 146, title I, § 128; May 18, 1954, 68 Stat. 118, ch. 218, title XIII, § 1305; Mar. 31, 1956, 70 Stat. 81, ch. 154, title II, § 204; July 3, 1957, 71 Stat. 276, Pub. L. 85-82, § 1.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Prior contracts 1
Sales to United States or District 2

1. Prior contracts

Provision of this section exempting sales of goods made pursuant to contracts entered into before date of approval of act, if there is contract in writing which imposes unconditional liability on part of purchaser to buy goods covered at fixed price and on vendor to deliver a definite quantity of such goods at contract price, did not exempt purchases made by contractor pursuant to construction contracts with United States and District of Columbia, when there was no proof of any contracts in writing, other than the three construction contracts, since relationships between parties to those contracts were not those of purchasers and vendors. McShain, Inc. v. District of Columbia (1953, 205 F. 2d 882, 92 U.S. App. D.C. 358, certiorari denied 74 S. Ct. 227, 346 U.S. 900, 98 L. Ed. 400).

2. Sales to United States or District

Provision of this section exempting sales to the United States or District or any instrumentality thereof, did not exempt from taxation purchases made by private contractor of materials and supplies for use in construction contracts with United States and District of Columbia, since when contractor purchased such materials, neither it nor its vendor was making sales of tangible personal property to the United States or the District. McShain, Inc. v. District of Columbia (1953, 205 F. 2d 882, 92 U.S. App. D.C. 358, certiorari denied 74 S. Ct. 227, 346 U.S. 900, 98 L. Ed. 400).

Government regulations pertaining to Sales and Use Taxes under this chapter, declaring that where contractor enters into construction contract with United States or District, contractor may purchase such materials and supplies as are to be physically incorporated in and become real property without payment of tax, means that the material must be physically present or incorporated in the structure, and it does not exempt from taxation products consumed in the course of construction. Id.

§ 47-2606. Tax to be separately stated.

Upon each sale of tangible personal property or services, the gross receipts from which are taxable under this chapter, the reimbursement of tax to be collected by the vendor from the purchaser under the provisions of this chapter shall be stated and charged separately from the sales price and shown separately on any record thereof at the time the sale is made or evidence of sale issued or employed by the vendor. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 117, ch. 146, title I, § 129.)

§ 47-2607. Presumption of taxability.

It shall be presumed that all receipts from the sale of tangible personal property and services mentioned in this chapter are subject to tax until the contrary is established, and the burden of proving that a receipt is not taxable hereunder shall be upon the vendor or the purchaser as the case may be. Except as provided in section 47-2605 (c), unless the vendor shall have taken from the purchaser a certificate signed by and bearing the name and address of the purchaser and the number of his registration certificate to the effect that the property or service was purchased for resale, the receipts from all sales shall be deemed taxable. The certificate herein required shall be in such form as the Assessor shall prescribe and, in case no certificate is furnished or obtained prior to the time the sale is consummated, the tax shall apply to the gross receipts therefrom as if the sale were made at retail. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 117, ch. 146, title I, § 130.)

§ 47-2608. Tax a personal debt—Period of limitation.

The tax imposed by this chapter and interest and penalties thereon shall become, from the time due and payable, a personal debt of the person liable to pay the same to the District. An action may be brought at any time within three years from the time the tax shall be due and payable in the name of the District to recover the amount of any taxes, penalties, and interest due under the provisions of this chapter, but such actions shall be utterly barred after the expiration of the aforesaid three years. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 117, ch. 146, title I, § 131.)

§ 47-2609. Tax a preferred claim—Priority over property taxes.

Whenever the business or property of any person subject to tax under the terms of this chapter, shall be placed in receivership or bankruptcy, or assignment is made for the benefit of creditors, or if said property is seized under distraint for property taxes, all taxes, penalties, and interest imposed by this chapter for which said person is in any way liable shall be a prior and preferred claim. Neither the United States marshal, nor a receiver, assignee, or any other officer shall sell the property of any person subject to tax under the terms of this chapter under process or order of any court without first determining from the Collector the amount of any such taxes due and payable by said person, and if there be any such taxes due, owing, or unpaid under this chapter, it shall be the duty of such officer to first pay to the Collector the amount of said taxes out of the proceeds of said sale before making any payment of any moneys to any judgment creditor or other claimants of whatsoever kind or nature. Any person charged with the administration or distribution of any such property as aforesaid who shall violate the provisions of this section shall be personally liable for any taxes accrued and unpaid which are chargeable against the person otherwise liable for tax under the terms of this section. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 117, ch. 146, title I, § 132.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Construction with other laws 1
Insolvency proceedings 2

1. Construction with other laws

This section giving District a preferred claim for sales and use taxes when assignment is made for benefit of creditors, being a more specific and more limited enactment, creates an exception to general federal statute giving priority to the United States in payment of claims against insolvent debtor, and, hence, District's claim for unpaid sales and compensating use taxes was entitled to priority over tax claim of United States in respect to payment out of assets in hands of assignees for benefit of creditors. United States v. Harry Saidman, Trustee, etc. (1956, 231 F. 2d 503, 97 U.S. App. D.C. 344).

"Bankruptcy", within this section providing that claims should be a prior and preferred claim in cases where taxpayer is placed in receivership or bankruptcy, embraces only proceedings under local insolvency acts, and does not override Bankruptcy Act provision giving priority to taxes only after expenses of administration, wage claims and certain creditor expenses and barring allowance of penalties, and District's claims for sales taxes and penalties were not entitled to priority. District of Columbia v. Greenbaum, Trustee etc. (1955, 223 F. 2d 633, 96 U.S. App. D.C. 168).

This section giving District a preferred claim for taxes when assignment is made for benefit of creditors has created an exception to 1797 general federal statute providing that insolvent person's debts due to United States shall be first satisfied, and hence District's tax claim had priority over tax claim of United States in respect to payment out of assets in hands of assignees for benefit of creditors. In re Assignment of Lobel Enterprises, Inc. (1954, 126 F. Supp. 792, cause remanded on other grounds 231 F. 2d 503, 97 U.S. App. D.C. 344).

2. Insolvency proceedings

This section giving priority to District for unpaid gross sales taxes against a taxpayer in bankruptcy before all claimants of whatsoever kind or nature and making penalties and interest a prior and preferred claim gives District a priority in whatever local insolvency proceedings are instituted where bankrupt person or corporation involved is not eligible to become a bankrupt under the Bankruptcy Act. District of Columbia v. Greenbaum, Trustee etc. (1955, 223 F. 2d 633, 96 U.S. App. D.C. 168).

§ 47-2610. Collection of tax—Liens—Jeopardy assessments—Distraint.

The taxes imposed by this chapter and penalties and interest thereon may be collected by the Collector in the manner provided by law for the collection of taxes due the District on personal property in force at the time of such collection; and liens for the taxes imposed by this chapter and penalties thereon may be acquired in the same manner that liens for personal property taxes are acquired. If the Assessor believes that the collection of any tax imposed by this chapter will be jeopardized by delay, he shall, whether or not the time otherwise prescribed by law for making return and paying such tax has expired, immediately assess such tax (together with all interest and penalties, the assessment of which is provided for by law). Such tax, penalties, and interest shall thereupon become immediately due and payable, and immediate notice and demand shall be made by the Collector for the payment thereof. Upon failure or refusal to pay such tax, penalty, and interest, collection thereof by distraint shall be lawful. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 118, ch. 146, title I, § 133.)

§ 47-2611. Assumption or refund of tax by vendor unlawful—Penalties.

It shall be unlawful for any vendor to advertise or hold out or state to the public or to any customer directly or indirectly that the reimbursement of tax or any part thereof to be collected by the vendor under this chapter will be assumed or absorbed by the vendor or that it will not be added to the selling price of the property sold or the taxable services rendered, or if added to said price that it, or any part thereof, will be refunded. Any person violating any provision of this section shall upon conviction be fined not more than $500 or imprisoned for not more than six months, or both, for each offense. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 118, ch. 146, title I, § 134.)

§ 47-2612. Monthly returns to be filed.

(a) On or before the twentieth day of each calendar month, every vendor who has made any sale at retail, taxable under the provisions of this chapter, during the preceding calendar month, shall file a return with the Assessor. Such returns shall show the total gross proceeds of the vendor's business for the month for which the return is filed; the gross receipts of the business of the vendor upon which the tax is computed; the amount of tax for which the vendor is liable and such other information as the Assessor deems necessary for the computation and collection of the tax.

(b) The Assessor may permit or require the returns to be made for other periods and upon such other dates as he may specify: Provided, That the gross receipts during any tax year shall be included in returns covering such year and no other.

(c) The form of returns shall be prescribed by the Assessor and shall contain such information as he may deem necessary for the proper administration of this chapter. The Assessor may require amended returns to be filed within twenty days after notice and to contain the information specified in the notice. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 118, ch. 146, title I, § 135.)

§ 47-2613. Payment of tax.

(a) At the time of filing his return as provided by this chapter, the taxpayer shall pay to the Collector the taxes imposed by this chapter.

(b) The taxes for the period for which a return is required to be filed by a vendor under this chapter shall be due by the vendor and payable to the Collector on the date limited for the filing of the return for such period, without regard to whether a return is filed or whether the return which is filed correctly shows the amount of gross receipts and taxes due thereon. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 118, ch. 146, title I, § 136.)

§ 47-2614. Annual returns to be filed.

On or before thirty days after the end of the tax year of each vendor required to pay to the Collector the tax imposed by the provisions of this chapter, such vendor shall make an annual return for such tax year in such form as may be required by the Assessor. The Assessor for good cause shown may on the written application of a vendor extend the time for making any return required by this section. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 119, ch. 146, title I, § 137.)

§ 47-2615. Secrecy of returns—Reciprocity.

(a) Except to any official of the District, having a right thereto in his official capacity, it shall be unlawful for any officer or employee of the District to divulge or make known in any manner the amount of gross proceeds or any particulars relating thereto or the computation thereof set forth or disclosed in any return required to be filed under this chapter, and neither the original nor a copy of any such return desired for use in litigation in court shall be furnished where neither the District nor the United States is interested in the result of such litigation, whether or not the request is contained in an order of the court: Provided, however, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the furnishing to a taxpayer a copy of his return upon the payment of a fee of $2.

(b) Nothing contained in subsection (a) of this section shall be construed to prohibit the publication of notices authorized in this chapter or the publication of statistics so classified as to prevent the identification of particular returns or reports and the items thereof, or the publication of delinquent lists showing the names of persons, vendors, or purchasers who have failed to pay the taxes imposed by this chapter within the time prescribed herein, together with any relevant information which in the opinion of the Assessor may assist in the collection of such delinquent taxes.

(c) Nothing contained in subsection (a) of this section shall be construed to prohibit the Assessor, in his discretion, from divulging or making known any information contained in any report, application, or return required under the provisions of this chapter other than such information as may be contained therein relating to the amount of gross proceeds or tax thereon or any particulars relating thereto or the computation thereof.

(d) Any violation of the provisions of subsection (a) of this section shall be punishable by a fine not exceeding $1,000 or imprisonment for six months or both, in the discretion of the court.

(e) Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, the Assessor may permit the proper officer of the United States or of any State or Territory of the United States or his authorized representative to inspect the returns filed under this chapter, or may furnish to such officer or representative a copy of any such return, provided the United States, State, or Territory grants substantially similar privileges to the Assessor or his representative or to the proper officer of the District charged with the administration of this chapter.

(f) All reports, applications, and returns received by the Assessor under the provisions of this chapter shall be preserved for three years and thereafter until the Assessor orders them to be destroyed. May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 119, ch. 146, title I, § 138.)

§ 47-2616. Determination of deficiencies.

If a return required by this chapter is not filed, or if a return when filed is incorrect or insufficient, the amount of tax due shall be determined by the Assessor from such information as may be obtainable. Notice of such determination shall be given to the taxpayer. Such determination shall finally and irrevocably fix the tax unless the person against whom it is assessed, within thirty days after the giving of notice of such determination, shall apply in writing to the Assessor for a hearing, or unless the Assessor of his own motion shall redetermine the same. After such hearing or redetermination the Assessor shall give notice of his final determination to the person against whom the tax is assessed. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 119, ch. 146, title I, § 139.)

§ 47-2617. Refunds.

(a) Except as to any tax finally determined as provided in section 47-2616, where any tax has been erroneously or illegally collected, the tax shall be refunded if application under oath is filed with the Assessor for such refund within one year from the payment thereof. For like cause and within the same period a refund may be made upon the certificates of the Assessor and the Collector. Whenever a refund is made upon the certificates of the Assessor and the Collector, the Assessor and Collector shall state their reasons therefor in writing. Such application may be made by the person upon whom such tax was imposed and who has actually paid the tax. When an application is made by a vendor who has collected reimbursement of such tax, no actual refund of moneys shall be made to such vendor, until he shall first establish to the satisfaction of the Assessor, under such regulations as the Commissioners may prescribe, that the vendor has repaid to the purchaser the amount for which the application for refund is made. In lieu of any refund required to be made, a credit may be allowed therefor on payment due from the applicant.

(b) Application for a refund or credit made as herein provided shall be deemed an application for a revision of any tax, penalty, or interest complained of and the Assessor may receive evidence with respect thereto. After making his determination of whether any refund shall be made, the Assessor shall give notice thereof to the applicant. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 120, ch. 146, title I, § 140.)

§ 47-2618. Appeals.

(a) Any vendor or purchaser aggrieved by a final determination of tax or denial of an application for refund of any tax may, within ninety days from the date of the final determination of the tax or from the date of the denial of an application for refund, as the case may be, appeal to the Board of Tax Appeals for the District of Columbia in the same manner and to the same extent as set forth in sections 47-2403, 47-2404 and 47-2407 to 47-2411. The remedy provided in this section shall not be deemed to take away from the taxpayer any remedy which he might have under any other provision of law, but no suit by the taxpayer for the recovery of any part of any tax shall be instituted in any court if the taxpayer has elected to file an appeal with respect to such tax with the Board of Tax Appeals for the District of Columbia.

(b) If it shall be determined by the Assessor, the Board of Tax Appeals for the District of Columbia, or any court having jurisdiction over the subject matter, that any part of any tax which was assessed as a deficiency, and any interest thereon paid by the taxpayer, was an overpayment, interest shall be allowed and paid upon such overpayment of tax at the rate of 4 per centum per annum from the date such overpayment was paid until the date of refund. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 120, ch. 146, title I, § 141.)

REDESIGNATION OF BOARD OF TAX APPEALS

Board of Tax Appeals redesignated as the District of Columbia Tax Court and the member thereof to be known as the judge of the District of Columbia Tax Court, see § 47-2402.

§ 47-2619. Sales in bulk.

Whenever there is made a sale, transfer, or assignment in bulk of any part or the whole of a stock of merchandise or of fixtures, or of merchandise and of fixtures, pertaining to the conducting of the business of the seller, transferor, or assignor, otherwise than in the ordinary course of trade and in the regular prosecution of said business, the purchaser, transferee, or assignee shall at least five days before taking possession of such merchandise, fixtures, or merchandise and fixtures, or paying therefor, notify the Assessor by registered mail of the proposed sale and of the price, terms, and conditions thereof, irrespective of whether or not the seller, transferor, or assignor has represented to or informed the purchaser, transferee, or assignee that he owes any tax pursuant to this chapter or whether he has complied with section 28-1701, or whether or not he has knowledge that such taxes are owing, or whether any such taxes are in fact owing.

(b) Whenever the purchaser, transferee, or assignee shall fail to give the notice to the Assessor as required by section 47-2618, or whenever the Assessor shall inform the purchaser, transferee, or assignee that a possible claim for such tax or taxes exists, any sums of money, property, or choses in action, or other consideration, which the purchaser, transferee, or assignee is required to transfer over to the seller, transferor, or assignor shall be subject to a first priority right and lien for any such taxes theretofore or thereafter determined to be due from the seller, transferor, or assignor to the District, and the purchaser, transferee, or assignee is forbidden to transfer to the seller, transferor, or assignor any such sums of money, property, or choses in action to the extent of the amount of the District's claim. For failure to comply with the provisions of this section, the purchaser, transferee, or assignee shall be personally liable for the payment to the District of any such taxes theretofore or thereafter determined to be due to the District from the seller, transferor, or assignor, and such liability may be assessed and enforced in the same manner as the liability for tax under this chapter. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 121, ch. 146, title I, § 142.)

§ 47-2620. Rules and regulations.

In addition to the powers granted to the Commissioners in this chapter, they are hereby authorized and empowered to make, adopt, and amend rules and regulations appropriate to the carrying out of this chapter and the purposes thereof. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 121, ch. 146, title I, § 143.)

§ 47-2621. Additional powers of Assessor.

In addition to the powers granted to the Assessor in this chapter, he is hereby authorized and empowered—

(a) to extend for cause shown the time of filing any return for a period not exceeding thirty days; and for cause shown, to remit penalties and interest in whole or in part except as otherwise provided in this chapter; and to compromise disputed claims in connection with the taxes hereby imposed;

(b) to request information from the Bureau of Internal Revenue of the Treasury Department of the United States relative to any person for the purpose of assessing taxes imposed by this chapter; and said Bureau of Internal Revenue is authorized and required to supply such information as may be requested by the Assessor relative to any person for the purpose herein provided;

(c) to prescribe methods for determining the gross proceeds from sales made or services rendered and for the allocation of such sales into taxable and nontaxable sales;

(d) to require any vendor selling to persons within the District to keep detailed records of the nature and value of personal property sold for use within the District, and to furnish such information upon request to the Assessor;

(e) to assess, determine, revise, and readjust the taxes imposed under this chapter. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 121, ch. 146, title I, § 144.)

CHANGE OF NAME

The official title of the Bureau of Internal Revenue was changed to the Internal Revenue Service by Treas. Dept. Order 150-29, eff. July 9, 1953.

§ 47-2622. Examination of records and witnesses.

The Assessor, for the purpose of ascertaining the correctness of any return filed as required by this chapter, or for the purpose of making a return where none has been made, is authorized to examine any books, papers, records, or memoranda, or any person bearing upon the matters required to be included in the return and may summon any person to appear before him and produce books, records, papers, or memoranda bearing upon the matters required to be included in the return and to give testimony or answer interrogatories under oath respecting the same, and the Assessor, or his duly authorized representative, shall have power to administer oaths to such person or persons. Such summons may be served by any member of the Metropolitan Police Department. If any person, having been personally summoned, shall neglect or refuse to obey the summons issued as herein provided, then in that event the Assessor, or the Deputy Assessor, may report that fact to the United States District Court for the District of Columbia, or one of the justices thereof, and said court or any justice thereof hereby is empowered to compel obedience to said summons to the same extent as witnesses may be compelled to obey the subpoenas of that court. Any person in custody or control of any books, papers, records, or memoranda bearing upon the matters required to be included in such returns, who shall refuse to permit the examination by the Assessor or any person designated by him of any such books, papers, records, or memoranda, or who shall obstruct or hinder the Assessor or any person designated by him in the examination of any books, papers, records, or memoranda, shall upon conviction thereof be fined not more than $500 or imprisoned for not more than six months, or both, for each offense. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 122, ch. 146, title I, § 145.)

§ 47-2623. Certificate of registration.

(a) No person shall engage or continue to engage in the business of making any retail sales subject to tax under the provisions of this chapter without having obtained a certificate of registration therefor. If two or more persons constitute a single vendor as defined in this chapter, such persons may operate a single retail establishment under one certificate of registration and in such case neither the death or retirement of one or more of such persons from business in such establishment nor the entrance of one or more persons thereinto shall affect the certificate of registration for a period of sixty days or require the issuance of a new certificate until the expiration of such period.

(b) Each applicant for a certificate required by this section shall make out and deliver to the Assessor, upon a blank to be furnished by him for that purpose, a statement showing the name of the applicant, each retail establishment where the applicant's business is to be conducted, the kind or nature of such business and such other information as the Assessor may prescribe. Upon receipt of such application the Assessor shall issue the applicant, without charge, a certificate of registration for each retail establishment designated in the application, authorizing the applicant to engage in business at such retail establishment. The certificate of registration shall be nontransferable except as otherwise provided in this chapter, and shall be displayed in the applicant's place of business. The form of such certificate of registration shall be prescribed by the Assessor.

(c) In the case of a vendor who has no fixed place of business and sells from one or more vehicles, each such vehicle shall constitute a retail establishment for the purpose of this chapter. In the case of a vendor who has no fixed place of business and does not sell from a vehicle, the application for a certificate of registration shall set forth the address to which any notice or other communication authorized by this chapter may be sent to the applicant, and the place so designated shall constitute a retail establishment for the purposes of this chapter.

(d) Whoever engages in the business of selling tangible personal property at retail, or makes any sale which is subject to tax under the provisions of this chapter without having a certificate of registration therefor, as required by this section, shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $100. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 122, ch. 146, title I, § 146.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Evidence

Evidence was sufficient to sustain conviction for violation of this chapter. Scott, Jr. v. District of Columbia (D.C. Mun. App. 1956, 122 A. 2d 579).

In prosecution for violations of this chapter, error, if any, in refusing to exclude testimony of government witness on ground that best evidence rule precluded his testimony as to certain Federal alcohol tax stamp records was cured by subsequent admission in evidence of the records, the contents of which were not at variance with witness' testimony. Id.

§ 47-2624. Penalties and interest.

(a) Any person failing to file a return or who files a false or incorrect return or who fails to pay any tax to the Collector within the time required by this chapter shall be subject to a penalty of 5 per centum of the amount of tax due, plus interest at the rate of one-half of 1 per centum of such tax for each month of delay after such return was required to be filed or such tax became due; but the Assessor, if satisfied that the delay was excusable may waive the penalty of 5 per centum. Unpaid penalties and interest may be collected in the same manner as the tax imposed by this chapter. The interest provided for in this section shall be applicable to any tax determined by the Assessor as a deficiency.

(b) The certificate of the Collector or Assessor, as the case may be, to the effect that a tax has not been paid, that a return has not been filed, or a registration certificate has not been obtained, or that information has not been supplied pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, shall be presumptive evidence thereof: Provided, That the presumptions created by this subsection shall not be applicable in criminal prosecutions. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 123, ch. 146, title I, § 147; July 10, 1952, 66 Stat. 543, ch. 649, § 2(c).)

AMENDMENT

1952—Subsec. (a) amended by act July 10, 1952, which substituted "at the rate of one-half of 1 per centum of such tax for each month of delay after such return was required to be filed or such tax became due; but the Assessor, if satisfied that the delay was excusable may waive the penalty of 5 per centum" for "at the rate of 1 per centum of such tax for each month of delay excepting the first month after such return was required to be filed or such tax became due; but the Assessor, is satisfied that the delay was excusable, may waive all or any part of such penalty in excess of interest at the rate of 6 per centum per year."

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1952 AMENDMENT

Amendment of section by act July 10, 1952, effective July 1, 1952, see section 8 of act July 10, 1952, set out as a note under § 47-1619.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. In general

District of Columbia's claim against bankrupt for one percent per month payment on delinquent personal property taxes was, since in excess of legal interest rate and designated by statute a penalty, a "penalty" rather than "interest" and was barred by Bankruptcy Act. District of Columbia v. Greenbaum, Trustee etc. (1955, 223 F. 2d 633, 96 U. S. App. D. C. 168).

§ 47-2625. Failure to file return.

(a) Any person required to file a return or report or perform any act under the provisions of this chapter who shall fail or neglect to file such return or report or perform such act within the time required shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $300 for each and every failure or neglect. The penalty provided herein shall be in addition to the other penalties provided in this chapter.

(b) Any person required to file a return or report or perform any act under the provisions of this chapter who willfully fails or refuses to file such return or report or perform such act within the time required shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $5,000 or imprisoned for not more than one year or both. The penalty provided herein shall be in addition to the other penalties provided in this chapter. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 123, ch. 146, title I, § 148.)

Conduct of counsel 1

 Evidence 3
 Jury trial 4
 Privilege 5
 Questions for jury 6
 Review 7
 Sentence 8

1. Conduct of counsel

Defendant's former attorney, who, in criminal proceeding, was representing, at same time, both defendant and government's principal witness against defendant, could not have given defendant the undivided and undiluted fidelity to which defendant was entitled, and, therefore, new trial would be ordered following defendant's conviction for violation of this chapter. Scott v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1953, 99 A. 2d 641).

2. Defenses

In prosecution of operator of automobile body works for failing to file monthly sales and use tax returns as required by this chapter, fact that others who allegedly violated this chapter were not proceeded against by Assessor of Taxes was no defense. Perlich v. District of Columbia (D.C. Mun. App. 1952, 90 A. 2d 227).

3. Evidence

In prosecution for violations of this chapter, error, if any, in refusing to exclude testimony of government witness on ground that best evidence rule precluded his testimony as to certain Federal alcohol tax stamp records was cured by subsequent admission in evidence of the records, the contents of which were not at variance with witness' testimony. Scott, Jr. v. District of Columbia (D.C. Mun. App. 1956, 122 A. 2d 579).

Evidence was sufficient to sustain conviction for violation of this chapter. Id.

4. Jury trial

In prosecution of operator of an automobile body works for failing to file monthly sales and use tax returns as required by this chapter, defendant was not entitled to jury trial as matter of right in view of fact that such statutory offense is essentially petty in nature, does not involve moral turpitude, and would not be indictable at common law. Perlich v. District of Columbia (D.C. Mun. App. 1952, 90 A. 2d 227).

5. Privilege

Treasury Department Regulation prohibiting disclosure of official information was promulgated for benefit of the United States Government, and the privilege against disclosure of official information could be claimed by the government alone, not by defendant in prosecution for violation of this chapter, and, therefore, testimony of Internal Revenue Agents concerning defendant's admissions to them in course of Federal tax violation investigation was proper. Scott, Jr. v. District of Columbia (D.C. Mun. App. 1956, 122 A. 2d 579).

6. Questions for jury

In prosecution of operator of automobile body works for failing to file monthly sales and use tax returns as required by this chapter, whether Government had waived offense, as alleged by defendant who claimed that though defendant was late in filing defendant was told by a tax official that matter would be dropped if defendant filed return, was for jury. Perlich v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1952, 90 A. 2d 227).

7. Review

An operator of automobile body works who was convicted of failing to file monthly sales and use tax returns as required by this chapter could not for first time on appeal claim that prosecution was illegal because of absence of signature on information of assistant to corporation counsel attesting oath of complaining witness. Perlich v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1952, 90 A. 2d 227).

8. Sentence

Where trial court imposed a money fine against defendant operator of automobile body works for failure to file monthly sales and use tax returns as required by this chapter, trial court under this chapter could enforce payment of fine by ordering defendant in the alternative to serve a jail sentence. Perlich v. District of Columbia (D. C. Mun. App. 1952, 90 A. 2d 227).

§ 47-2626. Assessment of deficiencies — Limitations thereupon.

The Assessor shall determine, redetermine, assess, or reassess, any tax imposed by this chapter, except in cases where the tax is correct as computed in any return filed with the Assessor, within three years after the filing of any return, except as follows:

(a) In the case of a false return, or a failure to file a return, whether in good faith or otherwise, the tax may be assessed at any time.

(b) In the case of an incorrect return which has not been prepared as required by this chapter and by the return and instructions, rules, or regulations applicable thereto, the tax shall be assessed or reassessed within five years after the filing of such return. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 123, ch. 146, title I, § 149.)

§ 47-2627. Prosecutions.

§ 47-2701. Definitions.

1. (a) "Retail sale", "sale at retail", and "sold at retail" means all sales in any quantity or quantities of tangible personal property, whether made within or without the District, and services, to any person for the purpose of use, storage, or consumption, within the District, taxable under the terms of this chapter. These terms shall mean all sales of tangible personal property to any person for any purpose other than those in which the purpose of the purchaser is to resell the property so transferred in the form in which the same is, or is to be, received by him, or to use or incorporate the property so transferred as a material or part of other tangible personal property to be produced for sale by manufacturing, assembling, processing, or refining. For the purpose of the tax imposed by this chapter, these terms shall include, but shall not be limited to, the following:

(1) Any production, fabrication, or printing of tangible personal property on special order for a consideration.

(2) The sale of natural or artificial gas, oil, electricity, solid fuel or steam, when made to any purchaser for purposes other than resale or for use in manufacturing, assembling, processing or refining.

(3) The sale of material used in the construction, and of materials used in the repair or alteration, of real property, which materials, upon completion of such construction, alterations, or repairs, become real property, regardless of whether or not such real property is to be sold or resold.

(4) The sale or charges for possession or use of any article of tangible personal property granted under a lease or contract, regardless of the length of time of such lease or contract or whether such lease or contract is oral or written; in such event for the purposes of this chapter, such lease or contract shall be considered the sale of such article and the tax shall be computed and paid by the vendor upon the rental paid: Provided, however, That the gross proceeds from the rental of films, records, or any type of sound transcribing to theaters and radio and television broadcasting stations shall not be considered a retail sale: Provided further, That the gross proceeds from the rental of textiles, the essential part of which rental includes recurring service of laundering or cleaning thereof, shall not be considered a retail sale.

(5) The sale of any meals, food or drink, or other like tangible personal property for a consideration.

(b) The terms "retail sale", "sale at retail", and "sold at retail" shall not include the following:

(1) Sales of tickets for admission to places of amusement and sports.

(2) Sales of transportation and communication services.

(3) Professional, insurance, or personal service transactions which involve sales as inconsequential elements for which no separate charges are made.

(4) Sales of tangible personal property which property was purchased or acquired by a nonresident prior to coming into the District and establishing or maintaining a temporary or permanent residence in the District. As used in this subsection, the word "residence" means a place in which to reside and does not mean "domicile".

(5) Sales of tangible personal property which property was purchased or acquired by a nonresident person prior to coming into the District and establishing or maintaining a business in the District.

(6) The use or storage within the District of tangible personal property owned and held by a common carrier or sleeping-car company for use principally without the District in the course of interstate commerce, or commerce between the District and a State, in or upon, or as part of, any train, aircraft, or boat.

2. "Purchase" and "purchased" shall mean and include—

(a) any transfer, either conditionally or absolutely, of title or possession or both of the tangible personal property sold at retail;

(b) any acquisition of a license or other authority to use, store, or consume, the tangible personal property sold at retail;

(c) any sale of services sold at retail.

3. "Purchaser" means any person who shall have purchased tangible personal property or services sold at retail.

4. "In the District" and "within the District" mean within the exterior limits of the District of Columbia and include all territory within such limits owned by the United States of America.

5. "Store" and "storage" mean any keeping or the retention of possession in the District for any purpose of tangible personal property purchased at retail sale.

6. "Use" means the exercise by any person within the District of any right or power over tangible personal property and services sold at retail, whether purchased within or without the District by a purchaser from a vendor.

7. "Vendor" includes every person or retailer engaging in business in the District and making sales at retail as defined herein, whether for immediate or future delivery of the tangible personal property or performance of the services. When in the opinion of the Assessor it is necessary for the efficient administration of this chapter to regard any salesman, representative, peddler, or canvasser, as the agent of the dealer, distributor, supervisor, or employer, under whom he operates or from whom he obtains the tangible personal property sold or furnishes services, the Assessor may, in his discretion, treat and regard such agent as the vendor jointly responsible with his principal, employer, or supervisor, for the assessment and payment or collection of the tax imposed by this chapter.

8. "Engaging in business in the District" includes the selling, delivering, or furnishing in the District, or any activity in the District in connection with the selling, delivering, or furnishing in the District, of tangible personal property or services sold at retail as defined herein. This term shall include but shall not be limited to the following acts or methods of transacting business:

(a) The maintaining, occupying or using, permanently or temporarily, directly or indirectly, or through a subsidiary or agent, by whatever name called, of any office, place of distribution, sales or sample room or place, warehouse or storage place, or other place of business.

(b) The having of any representative, agent, salesman, canvasser, or solicitor operating in the District for the purpose of making sales at retail as defined herein, or the taking of orders for such sales.

9. "Retailer" includes every person engaged in the business of making sales at retail.

10. The definitions of "business", "food", "gross receipts", "person", "purchaser's certificate", "retail establishment", "return", "sale" and "selling", "sales price", "semipublic institution", "tangible personal property", "tax", "tax year", "taxpayer", "Assessor", "Collector", "Commissioners", and "District", as defined in chapter 26 of this title, are hereby incorporated in and made applicable to this chapter.

11. The foregoing definitions shall be applicable whenever the words defined are used in this chapter unless otherwise required by the context. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 124, ch. 146, title II, § 201-211; May 18, 1954, 68 Stat. 118, ch. 218, title XIII, § 1306; Mar. 31, 1956, 70 Stat. 81, ch. 154, § 205.)

AMENDMENT

1956—Par. 1(a)(4) amended generally by act Mar. 31, 1956. Prior to such amendment, such paragraph read as follows: "The grant of the right to continuous possession or use of any article of tangible personal property granted under a lease or contract if such grant of possession would be taxable if outright sale were made; in such event such lease or contract shall be considered the sale of such article and the tax shall be computed and paid by the vendor upon the rentals paid."

1954—Par. 1(a)(5) added by act May 18, 1954.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1956 AMENDMENT

Amendment of section by act Mar. 31, 1956, effective on the first day of the first month which begins on or after the 60th day after Mar. 31, 1956, see section 206 of act Mar. 31, 1956, set out as a note under § 47-2601.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1954 AMENDMENT

Amendment of section by act May 18, 1954, effective on and after the first day of the first month succeeding the 60th day after May 18, 1954, see section 1309 of act May 18, 1954, set out as a note under § 47-2601.

SHORT TITLE

Section 1 of act May 27, 1949, provided in part that: "Title II of this Act [this chapter] may be cited as the 'District of Columbia Use Tax Act.'"

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Material to be produced for sale 1
Professional or personal service transactions 2
Property acquired for purpose of resale 3

1. Material to be produced for sale

Cartons which bottling companies delivered to customers with bottled drinks were not used or incorporated as material or part of other property to be produced for sale, within meaning of this chapter excluding from use tax property purchased for use as material or part of other tangible personal property to be produced for sale. District of Columbia v. Seven-Up Washington, Inc. (1954, 214 F. 2d 197, 93 U.S. App. D.C. 272, certiorari denied 74 S. Ct. 851, 347 U.S. 989, 98 L. Ed. 1123).

2. Professional or personal service transactions

Sales to newspaper of mats bearing impressions of current sequence of comic strips, with right to reproduce one time the work of artists who made the drawings, were sales of professional and personal services of the artists which involved transfer of title to the mats, of inconsequential value, from which drawings could be reproduced, and hence were within exemption from sales and use taxes granted by par. 1(b)(3) of this section to professional, insurance or personal service transactions which involve sales as inconsequential elements for which no separate charges are made. Washington Times-Herald, Inc. v. District of Columbia (1954, 213 F. 2d 23, 94 U.S. App. D. C. 154).

3. Property acquired for purpose of resale

Cartons, which bottling companies delivered to customers with bottled drinks, upon which no credit or refund for return was allowed, and which were not drawn back into more or less constant use by companies, were property "acquired for purpose of resale" within meaning, as construed in Regulations, of this chapter which exempts from use tax property acquired for purpose of resale. District of Columbia v. Seven-Up Washington, Inc. (1954, 214 F. 2d 197, 93 U.S. App. D. C. 272, certiorari denied 74 S. Ct. 851, 347 U.S. 989, 98 L. Ed. 1123).

Where bottling companies bought bottles and cases and sold them, filled with beverages, at prices smaller than the cost of the bottles and cases, in expectation that bottles and cases would be returned for refund, the bottles and cases were not "acquired for purpose of resale" within meaning of this chapter excluding from use tax property purchased for resale. Id.

Under this chapter excluding from use tax property which is acquired for purpose of resale, property is not excluded simply because it is resold, but it is excluded only when it is purchased specifically for the purpose of resale. Id.

§ 47-2702. Imposition of tax.

Beginning on and after August 1, 1949, there is hereby imposed and there shall be paid by every vendor engaging in business in the District and by every purchaser a tax on the use, storage, or consumption of any tangible personal property and services sold or purchased at retail sale. The tax hereby imposed shall be at the rate of 2 per centum of the sale price of the tangible personal property or services rendered or sold, except that the rate of tax with respect to sales of food for human consumption off the premises where such food is sold shall be 1 per centum of the sales price of such sales. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 126, ch. 146, title II, § 212; May 18, 1954, 68 Stat. 118, ch. 218, title XIII, § 1307.)

AMENDMENT

1954—Act May 18, 1954, provided for a tax at the rate of 1 per centum of the sales price with respect to sales of food for human consumption off the premises where such food is sold.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1954 AMENDMENT

Amendment of section by act May 18, 1954, effective on and after the first day of the first month succeeding the 60th day after May 18, 1954, see section 1309 of act May 18, 1954, set out as a note under § 47-2601.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. In general

Where personal property was purchased by contractor subsequent to passage of chapter 26 of this title, fact that construction contracts with reference to which purchases were made had been entered into before passage of chapter 26 of this title, did not absolve contractor from payment of the use tax, since it is the purchase or use itself, and not the signing of the contracts ultimately necessitating the purchase, which is the taxable event. John McShain, Inc. v. District of Columbia (1953, 205 F. 2d 882, 92 U.S. App. D.C. 358, certiorari denied 74 S. Ct. 227, 346 U.S. 900, 98 L. Ed. 400).

§ 47-2703. Collection of tax by vendor.

Every vendor engaging in business in the District and making sales at retail shall, for the privilege of making such sales, pay to the Collector the tax imposed by this chapter. At the time of making such sales the vendor shall collect the tax from the purchaser and give to the purchaser a receipt therefor in such form as prescribed by the Assessor. For the purpose of uniformity of tax collection by the vendor engaging in business in the District and for other purposes the provisions of sections 47-2603, 47-2604, 47-2606 and 47-2607 are hereby incorporated in and made applicable to this chapter. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 126, ch. 146, title II, § 213.)

§ 47-2704. Non-resident vendors.

Every vendor or retailer not engaging in business in the District who makes sales at retail as defined in this chapter, and who upon application to the Collector has been expressly authorized to pay the tax imposed by this chapter, shall, at the time of making such sales, collect the reimbursement of the tax from the purchaser and give to the purchaser a receipt therefor in such form as prescribed by the Assessor. For the purpose of uniformity of tax collection by the vendor or retailer who has been expressly authorized to pay the tax under the provisions of this section and for other purposes, the provisions of sections 47-2603, 47-2604, 47-2606 and 47-2607 are hereby incorporated in and made applicable to this chapter. A permit shall be issued to such vendor or retailer, without charge, to pay the tax and collect reimbursement thereof as provided herein. Such permit may be revoked at any time by the Collector who shall thereupon give notice thereof to the vendor or retailer. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 126, ch. 146, title II, § 214.)

§ 47-2705. Payment of tax by purchaser.

If a purchaser has not reimbursed for the tax such vendors or retailers as are required or authorized to pay the tax, as the case may be, such purchaser shall file a return as hereinafter provided and pay to the Collector a tax at the rates provided in section 47-2602 on the sales prices of property and services purchased at retail sale. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 127, ch. 146, title II, § 215; May 18, 1954, 68 Stat. 118, ch. 218, title XIII, § 1308.)

AMENDMENT

1954—Act May 18, 1954, substituted "a tax at the rates provided in section 47-2602 on the sales prices" for "2 per centum of the total sales prices."

EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1954 AMENDMENT

Amendment of section by act May 18, 1954, effective on and after the first day of the first month succeeding the 60th day after May 18, 1954, see section 1309 of act May 18, 1954, set out as a note under § 47-2601.

§ 47-2706. Exemptions.

The tax imposed by this chapter shall not apply to the following:

(a) Sales upon which taxes are imposed under chapter 26 of this title.

(b) Sales exempt from the taxes imposed under chapter 26 of this title.

(c) Sales upon which the purchaser has paid a retail sales tax or made reimbursement therefor to a vendor or retailer under the laws of any State or territory of the United States. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 127, ch. 146, title II, § 216.)

§ 47-2707. Collection of tax.

The provisions of sections 47-2608, 47-2609, and 47-2610 are hereby incorporated in and made applicable to this chapter. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 127, ch. 146, title II, § 217.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Priority

Chapter 26 of this title giving District a preferred claim for sales and use taxes when assignment is made for benefit of creditors, being a more specific and more limited enactment, creates an exception to general federal statute giving priority to the United States in payment of claims against insolvent debtor, and, hence, District's claim for unpaid sales and compensating use taxes was entitled to priority over tax claim of United States in respect to payment out of assets in hands of assignees for benefit of creditors. United States v. Harry Saidman, Trustee, etc. (1956, 231 F. 2d 503, 97 U.S. App. D.C. 344).

§ 47-2708. Surety bonds may be required.

Every vendor or retailer not engaging in business in the District who has been expressly authorized to pay the tax imposed by this chapter and collect reimbursement therefor, and every vendor engaging in business in the District, may, in the discretion of the Collector, be required to file with the Collector a bond not exceeding the amount of $10,000 with such sureties as the Collector deems necessary, and for such duration not exceeding five years as the Collector deems necessary, conditioned upon the payment of the tax due from any vendor or retailer for any period covered by any return required to be filed under this chapter. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 127, ch. 146, title II, § 218.)

§ 47-2709. Assumption or refund of tax unlawful—Penalty.

The provisions of section 47-2611 are hereby incorporated in and made applicable to this chapter. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 127, ch. 146, title II, § 219.)

§ 47-2710. Returns and payment of tax.

The provisions of sections 47-2612, 47-2613, 47-2614, and 47-2615 are hereby incorporated in and made applicable to this chapter. Every vendor, and every vendor or retailer not engaging in business in the District who is expressly authorized to pay the tax, shall file returns and pay the tax in accordance with the provisions of such sections applicable to the filing of returns and the payment of the tax and as shall be prescribed by regulation. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 127, ch. 146, title II, § 220.)

§ 47-2711. Monthly returns to be filed—Content and form—Payment of tax.

(a) Every purchaser who is required to pay a tax under this chapter shall file a return with the Assessor within twenty days after the end of each calendar month. Such returns shall show the total sales prices of all tangible personal property and services purchased at retail sale upon which the tax imposed has not been paid by the purchaser to vendors or retailers, the amount of tax for which the purchaser is liable, and such other information as the Assessor deems necessary for the computation and collection of the tax.

(b) The Assessor may permit or require the returns of purchasers to be made for other periods and upon such other dates as he may specify.

(c) The return filed by a purchaser shall include the sales prices of all tangible personal property and services purchased at taxable retail sale during the calendar month or other period for which the return is filed and upon which the tax imposed has not been reimbursed by the purchaser to vendors or retailers.

(d) The form of returns shall be prescribed by the Assessor and shall contain such information as he may deem necessary for the proper administration of this chapter. The Assessor may require amended returns to be filed within twenty days after notice and to contain the information specified in the notice.

(e) At the time of filing his return as provided in this section the purchaser shall pay to the Collector the amount of tax for which he is liable as shown by such return.

(f) The taxes for the period for which a return is required to be filed under this section shall be due by the taxpayer and payable to the Collector on the date limited for the filing of the return for such period, without regard to whether a return is filed or whether the return which is filed correctly shows the amount of the total sales prices and taxes due thereon. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 127, ch. 146, title II, § 221.)

§ 47-2712. Certificate of registration.

The provisions of section 47-2623 are hereby incorporated in and made applicable to this chapter: Provided, That vendors and persons who have been issued certificates of registration under chapter 26 of this title shall not be required to have such certificates under this chapter. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 128, ch. 146, title II, § 222.)

§ 47-2713. Application of sections 47-2616 to 47-2622 and 47-2624 to 47-2629.

The provisions of sections 47-2616 to 47-2622 and 47-2624 to 47-2629 are hereby incorporated in and made applicable to this chapter. (May 27, 1949, 63 Stat. 128, ch. 146, title II, § 223.)

EXTENSION OF AREA OF APPLICABILITY

Order No. 56-874, dated May 3, 1956, issued by Commissioners of the District of Columbia, extended the area of applicability of this section to make it apply in the District of Columbia outside the limits of the city of Washington.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Civil action 1
Constitutionality 2
Definition of person 3
Place of public amusement 4

1. Civil action

The District of Columbia antidiscrimination laws are municipal ordinances or police regulations, penal in character, and do not give rise to a civil action for damages. Tynes v. Gogos (D. C. Mun. App. 1958, 144 A. 2d 412).

A white woman who, with her husband who was a member of Negro race, entered a restaurant and dance hall, when entering the area of restaurant reserved for dancing, was ordered to stop because "mixed dancing" was not permitted, could not maintain an action for humiliation, embarrassment, anguish and anxiety under so-called "anti-discrimination laws" effective in District of Columbia regulating restaurants, etc. Id.

2. Constitutionality

Fact that this section adopted by corporation of city of Washington prohibiting persons who have obtained license for conducting place of public amusement of any kind from making any distinction on account of race or color was applicable only to that part of the District of Columbia formerly included in the cities of Washington and Georgetown, did not render the section invalid as violation of due process. Central Amusement Co., Inc. v. District of Columbia (D.C. Mun. App. 1956, 121 A. 2d 865).

3. Definition of person

The word "persons", as used in this section prohibiting persons who have obtained license for purpose of giving a lecture, concert, exhibition, circus performance, theatrical performance, or for conducting place of public amusement of any kind, from making any distinction on account of race or color, applies to corporations as well as natural persons. Central Amusement Co., Inc. v. District of Columbia (D.C. Mun. App. 1956, 121 A. 2d 865).

4. Place of public amusement

A bowling alley was a place of "public amusement" within this section prohibiting persons who have obtained license for purpose of giving a lecture, concert, exhibition, circus performance, theatrical performance, or for conducting place of public amusement of any kind from making any distinction on account of race or color. Central Amusement Co., Inc. v. District of Columbia (D.C. Mun. App. 1956, 121 A. 2d 865).

§ 47-2902. Licensed hotels, restaurants and like establishments may not refuse admittance and service to orderly persons or exclude them because of race or color—Penalty.

(a) It shall not be lawful for the keeper, proprietor, or proprietors of any licensed hotel, tavern, restaurant, ordinary, sample-room, tippling-house, saloon, or eating-house, to refuse to receive, admit, entertain, and supply any quiet and orderly person or persons, or to exclude any person or persons on account of race or color.

(b) If the keeper, proprietor, or proprietors of any licensed hotel, tavern, restaurant, ordinary, sample-room, tippling-house, saloon, or eating-house, or any agent acting for him or them, shall violate or offend against the provisions of sections 47-2902 to 47-2904, he or they shall be subject to a fine of not less than fifty dollars for each violation thereof, to be recovered in an action of debt, in the name of the Mayor, Board of Alderman, and Board of Common Council of the city, on information filed before any police magistrate. (Mar. 7, 1870, ch. 42, p. 22, Corp. Laws of Wash., 67th Council, §§ 1, 2.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Civil action

The District of Columbia antidiscrimination laws are municipal ordinances or police regulations, penal in character, and do not give rise to a civil action for damages. Tynes v. Gogos (D.C. Mun. App. 1958, 144 A. 2d 412).

§ 47-2903. Increase of penalty provisions in section 47-2901.

In lieu of the penalties provided in section 47-2901 for the offense therein mentioned, the penalty mentioned in section 47-2902 (b) is hereby substituted, and hereafter shall be applicable to and enforced, as herein provided, for any violation of section 47-2901. (Mar. 7, 1870, ch. 42, p. 22, Corp. Laws of Wash., 67th Council, § 3.)

§ 47-2904. Recovery of fine—Payment of moiety.

After the final conviction of any party for the violation of any of the provisions of sections 47-2901 to 47-2903, and the recovery of the fine, a sum equal in amount to one-half of such fine shall be paid, and warrant drawn in the usual form out of the general fund, to the party who may have been the informer in any such case. That all acts or parts of acts that are inconsistent with the provisions of sections 47-2902 to 47-2904 are hereby repealed. (Mar. 7, 1870, ch. 42, p. 22, Corp. Laws of Wash., 67th Council, §§ 4, 5.)

§ 47-2905. Posting of price scale.

Keepers or owners of restaurants, eating-houses, bar-rooms, or ice-cream saloons, or soda-fountains, at which food, refreshments or drinks are sold, or keepers of barber shops and bathing houses, must put in a conspicuous place in their restaurant, eating-houses, ice-cream saloons, or places for the sale of soda water, a scale of the prices for which the different articles they have for sale will be furnished. (Leg. Assem., June 20, 1872, § 1.)

PARTIAL REPEAL

The United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia, in John R. Thompson Co., Inc. v. District of Columbia (1954, 93 U. S. App. D. C. 373, 214 F. 2d 210) held that the 1873 act of the Legislative Assembly of District of Columbia, classified to sections 47-2908 to 47-2911 repealed the act of 1872, classified to this section and sections 47-2906 and 47-2907, with respect to restaurants.

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Authority to legislate 1
Repeal 2

1. Authority to legislate

"Rightful subjects of legislation" within District of Columbia Organic Act of 1871 extending with certain exceptions the legislative power of District to all rightful subjects of legislation within District consistent with Federal Constitution and provisions of Organic Act is as broad as police power of state so as to include a law prohibiting discriminations against Negroes by owners and managers of restaurants in District of Columbia. District of Columbia v. John R. Thompson Co. (1953, 73 S. Ct. 1007, 346 U. S. 100, 97 L. Ed. 1480).

2. Repeal

The 1872 and 1873 antidiscrimination laws, sections 47-2905 to 47-2911, governing restaurants in District of Columbia are police regulations" and "acts relating to municipal affairs" within District of Columbia Code of 1901 saving such regulations and acts from repeal. District of Columbia v. John R. Thompson Co. (1953, 73 S. Ct. 1007, 346 U. S. 100, 97 L. Ed. 1480).

The 1874 Act abolishing Legislative Assembly of District of Columbia and the 1878 Organic Act precluded repeal of 1872 and 1873 antidiscrimination laws of Legislative Assembly sections 47-2905 to 47-2911, except by Act of Congress. Id.

Sections 47-2908 to 47-2911 making it unlawful for restaurateurs to discriminate against or refuse to serve any well-behaved and respectable person repeals this section and sections 47-2906, 47-2907, insofar as they apply to restaurants in District of Columbia. John R. Thompson Co., Inc. v. District of Columbia (1954, 214 F. 2d 210, 93 U. S. App. D. C. 373).

§ 47-2906. Failure to post price scale—Penalty.

Persons violating the provisions of section 47-2905 are to be deemed guilty of misdemeanor, and, upon conviction in a court having jurisdiction, are to be fined by the court not less than twenty dollars, and not more than fifty dollars. (Leg. Assem. June 20, 1872, § 2.)

plied to restaurants in District of Columbia. John R. Thompson Co., Inc. v. District of Columbia (1954, 214 F. 2d 210, 93 U. S. App. D. C. 373).

§ 47-2907. Keepers or proprietors of restaurants, hotels, barber shops, bathing houses, ice-cream saloons, and soda fountains required to serve well-behaved persons.

Any restaurant keeper or proprietor, any hotel keeper or proprietor, proprietors or keepers of ice-cream saloons or places where soda-water is kept for sale, or keepers of barber shops and bathing houses, refusing to sell or wait upon any respectable well-behaved person, without regard to race, color, or previous condition of servitude, or any restaurant, hotel, ice-cream saloon or soda fountain, barber shop or bathing-house keepers, or proprietors, who refuse under any pretext to serve any well-behaved, respectable person, in the same room, and at the same prices as other well-behaved and respectable persons are served, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction in a court having jurisdiction, shall be fined one hundred dollars, and shall forfeit his or her license as keeper or owner of a restaurant, hotel, ice-cream saloon, or soda fountain, as the case may be, and it shall not be lawful for the Assessor [Register] or any officer of the District of Columbia to issue a license to any person or persons, or to their agent or agents, who shall have forfeited their license under the provisions of sections 47-2905 to 47-2907, until a period of one year shall have elapsed after such forfeiture. § 49-201. Rules stated.

In the interpretation and construction of this Code the following rules shall be observed. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1189, ch. 854.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

Effect of amendment 1
 Particular and general provisions 2

1. Effect of amendment

The amendment of an act without changing the particular provision that had previously been construed by the court does not amend away or modify the judicial interpretation previously given the act, as it will be presumed that such construction was in accordance with the legislative intent. Bardwell v. Petty (1923, 286 F. 772, 52 App. D. C. 310).

2. Particular and general provisions

Upon appeal to decide conflict between two sections, "where there is in the same statute, a particular enactment, and also a general one, which in its most comprehensive sense, would include what is embraced in the former, the particular enactment must be operative, and the general enactment must be taken to affect only such cases within its general language as are not within the provisions of the particular enactment." Tri-State Motor Corp. v. Standard Steel Car Co. (1922, 276 F. 631, 51 App. D. C. 109).

§ 49-202. Words importing singular number to include plural.

Words importing the singular number shall be held to include the plural, and vice versa, except where such construction would be unreasonable. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1189, ch. 854.)

§ 49-203. Masculine gender to include all genders.

Words importing the masculine gender shall be held to include all genders, except where such construction would be absurd or unreasonable. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1189, ch. 854.)

§ 49-204. Person to include partnerships and corporations.

The word "person" shall be held to apply to partnerships and corporations, unless such construction would be unreasonable, and the reference to any officer shall include any person authorized by law to perform the duties of his office, unless the context shows that such words were intended to be used in a more limited sense. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1189, ch. 854.)

§ 49-205. Executor to include administrator.

Wherever the word "executor" is used it shall include "administrator," and vice versa, unless such application of the term would be unreasonable. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1189, ch. 854.)

§ 49-206. Oath to include affirmation.

Wherever an oath is required an affirmation in judicial form, if made by a person conscientiously scrupulous about taking an oath, shall be deemed a sufficient compliance. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1189, ch. 854.)

§ 49-207. Insane person and lunatic.

The words "insane person" and "lunatic" shall include every idiot, non compos, lunatic, and insane person. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1189, ch. 854.)

Chapter 3.—LAWS REMAINING IN FORCE

Sec.

49-301. Common law, principles of equity and admiralty, and Acts of Congress to remain in force.

49-302. Ordinances of Washington and of levy court to remain in force.

49-303. Vestries.

49-304. Repeal and savings provisions of 1901 Code.

§ 49-301. Common law, principles of equity and admiralty, and Acts of Congress to remain in force.

The common law, all British statutes in force in Maryland on February 27, 1801, the principles of equity and admiralty, all general Acts of Congress not locally inapplicable in the District of Columbia, and all Acts of Congress by their terms applicable to the District of Columbia and to other places under the jurisdiction of the United States, in force in the District of Columbia on March 3, 1901, shall remain in force except in so far as the same are inconsistent with, or are replaced by, subsequent legislation of Congress. (Mar. 3, 1901, 31 Stat. 1189, ch. 854, § 1.)

Act of January 15, 1897 (29 Stat. 487) and § 330 of ch. 14 of the Federal Penal Code permitting jury to qualify verdict of guilty in cases of murder and rape are superseded by code. Johnson v. United States (38 App. D. C. 347, affirmed 32 S. Ct. 748, 225 U. S. 405, 56 L. Ed. 1142).

2. In general

This section is a general legislative declaration in affirmation of preexisting decisions upon the subject. Moss v. United States (23 App. D. C. 475).

Act of Maryland Legislative Assembly of 1723, ch. 16, § 10 (Abert's Comp. Stat. D. C., p. 176), relative to Sunday work does not apply in District of Columbia. District of Columbia v. Robinson (30 App. D. C. 283).

Section 1 of D. C. 1901 provided as judicial bases for determination of District of Columbia laws, British statutes in force in Maryland on February 27, 1801, the common law, and principles of equity. Burdick v. Burdick (1940, 33 F. Supp. 921).

3. Arrest without warrant

In the District, and at common law, an officer may not arrest for misdemeanor without warrant unless it is committed in his presence or within his view. Maghan v. Jerome (1937, 88 F. 2d 1001, 67 App. D. C. 9).

4. British statutes

This section, providing that all consistent common law and British statutes in force in Maryland at time of cession of District shall remain in force, gives to the British laws only that force which they previously had in this tract of territory under the laws of Maryland. Manoukian v. Tomasian (1956, 237 F. 2d 211, 99 U. S. App. D. C. 57, certiorari denied 77 S. Ct. 588, 352 U.S. 1026, 1 L. Ed. 2d 596).

Under this section giving force to all common law and British statutes which are not inconsistent with or replaced by subsequent legislation of Congress, statute must be given the same force and effect, and no more, than any other British statute on July 4, 1776. Id.

The provision of D. C. 1901, relating to British statutes in force in Maryland on February 27, 1801, was intended by Congress to mean those British statutes to the benefit of which Maryland inhabitants were entitled under the Maryland Declaration of Rights of 1776, and did not incorporate in the District of Columbia law, as amending the common law or otherwise, British statutes enacted between 1776 and 1801. Burdick v. Burdick (1940, 33 F. Supp. 921).

The common law and all British statutes in force in Maryland on February 27, 1801, remain in force, in District of Columbia, except insofar as they are inconsistent with or are repealed by subsequent legislation of Congress. U. S. v. Davis (App. D. C. 1947, 71 F. Supp. 749 reversed on other grounds 167 F. 2d 228, 83 U. S. App. D. C. 99, certiorari denied 68 S. Ct. 1501, 334 U. S. 849, 92 L. Ed. 1772).

5. Common law

This section stating that the common law and all British statutes in force in Maryland on February 27, 1801, shall remain in force, intends that the system of the common law unwritten and dynamic not in its then-current pronouncements on specific problems, should remain in force. Linkins et al. v. Protestant Episcopal Cathedral Foundation of the District of Columbia et al. (1951, 187 F. 2d 357, 87 U.S. App. D.C. 351, 28 A.L.R. 2d 521).

This section established the common law as the law in District of Columbia but did not purport to freeze that law into its 1901 or 1908 mold so that it could not expand to meet the changes of a dynamic society. Id.

The common law, particularly as derived from the common law of Maryland, is the fundamental part of the law in the District of Columbia to which court will look in absence of statutory enactment. Id.

Common-law crimes and jurisdiction to try the same. Palmer v. Lenovitz (35 App. D. C. 303).

Common law as to surface waters prevails. Baltimore & O. R. Co. v. Thomas (37 App. D. C. 255).

Common-law method of procuring talesman in capital cases when regular panel is exhausted. Milano v. United States (40 App. D. C. 379).

"Except as repealed by express statutory provision, or modified by inconsistent legislation, or where it has become obsolete or unsuited to our republican form of government, the common law of England in all its branches, both civil and criminal, remains to-day the law of the District of Columbia * * *." Lisner v. Hughes (1919, 258 F. 512, 49 App. D. C. 40). See, also, De Forest v. United States (11 App. D. C. 466).

Common law held to prevail in the District of Columbia as to descent of property. Cunningham v. Rodgers (1921, 267 F. 609, 50 App. D. C. 51).

The common law, insofar as it permits accumulation of income from a testamentary trust which is to terminate with the death of the testator's two nieces, involving the accumulation of a huge sum of money for a period probably in excess of sixty years, is obsolete and repugnant to our conditions, and therefore not applicable to the District of Columbia. Burdick v. Burdick (1940, 33 F. Supp. 921).

The provision in § 1 of the D. C. 1901, that the common law shall remain in force in the District of Columbia, intended the common law of England as it existed in Maryland on Feb. 27, 1801, and so far as it had not become obsolete or unsuited to our conditions, and it was not identical with the common law of England. Burdick v. Burdick (1940, 33 F. Supp. 921). See, also, United States v. Griffith (1925, 2 F. 2d 925, 55 App. D.C. 123).

Under the provision of the District of Columbia Code of 1901, now incorporated in this section, stating that the common law and all British statutes in force in Maryland on February 27, 1801, shall remain in force, and under Maryland's Original Declaration of Rights of 1776 providing that the inhabitants of Maryland were entitled to the common law of England and to the benefit of applicable English statutes existing at the time of their first emigration, the "common law" of the District does not embrace an English case of 1799 or 1805 and an English statute passed in 1800. Gertman v. Burdick (1942, 123 F. 2d 924, 75 U. S. App. D. C. 48, 152 A. L. R. 645, certiorari denied 62 S. Ct. 917, 315 U. S. 824, 86 L. Ed. 1220).

The common law, both civil and criminal, except as repealed by express statutory provision or modified by inconsistent legislation, remains the law of the District of Columbia. Elmhurst v. Shoreham Hotel (1945, 58 F. Supp. 484, affirmed 153 F. 2d 467, 80 U. S. App. D. C. 372).

All common-law offenses not covered by statute in force in District Court of Columbia are still recognized as crimes in the District and are punishable as such. U. S. v. Davis (App. D. C. 1947, 71 F. Supp. 749 reversed on other grounds 167 F. 2d 228, 83 U. S. App. D. C. 99, certiorari denied 68 S. Ct. 1501, 334 U. S. 849, 92 L. Ed. 1772).

The common law offense of negligent escape remains a crime in the District of Columbia by virtue of this section. U. S. v. Davis (1948, 167 F. 2d 228, 83 U. S. App. D. C. 99, certiorari denied 68 S. Ct. 1501, 334 U. S. 849, 92 L. Ed. 1772).

6. Compact between Maryland and Virginia

The compact between Maryland and Virginia as to shores of the Potomac River is not in force in District. United States ex rel. Greathouse v. Hurley (1933, 63 F. 2d 137, 61 App. D. C. 360).

7. Conspiracy against United States

The Supreme [District] Court of the [United States for the] District of Columbia sitting as a criminal court had jurisdiction to try an indictment for conspiracy to commit an offense against the United States. Pitts v. Peak (1931, 50 F. 2d 485, 60 App. D.C. 195).

8. Costs, laws relating to Section 815 of Title 28, U. S. C., disallowing costs to plaintiff recovering less than $500 in action brought in District Court of United States where jurisdictional amount exceeds such sum is applicable to District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia. Silverman v. Central Amusement Co. (1943, 49 F. Supp. 364).

9. Decisions of Maryland courts

Decisions of Maryland courts, being founded upon general principles, and made since the organization of the District of Columbia, are not binding upon the courts of the District as authorities, though entitled to all the respect due to the opinions of the highest court of the State. Phillips v. Negley (1886, 6 S. Ct. 901, 117 U. S. 665, 29 L. Ed. 1013).

Decisions of Maryland, giving to the statutes of that state a construction at variance with that which prevailed at the time of the cession of the District of Columbia, does not control the decision of the United States District Court for the District of Columbia as to the effect of those statutes on the territory within the District. Morris v. United States (1899, 19 S. Ct. 649, 174 U. S. 196, 43 L. Ed. 946).

Maryland statutes and Maryland decisions of date later than 1801 do not constitute the "law" of the District of Columbia but later decisions of the Court of last resort of Maryland may be looked to for assistance, not merely in interpreting the law which was inherited from that state by the District of Columbia, but also in interpreting later statutes of the district which are the same or closely similar to those of Maryland. Watkins v. Rives (1942, 125 F. 2d 33, 75 U. S. App. D. C. 109).

10. Espionage Act

Provisions of the Espionage Act apply in the District of Columbia in a case of a violation of a United States statute applicable only to the District. Nuckols v. United States (1938, 99 F. 2d 353, 69 App. D.C. 120).

11. Full faith and credit

When rights have ripened into a judgment of a court in another state, the full faith and credit clause applies and courts of the District are bound, equally with courts of the states, to observe the command of the full faith and credit clause, wherever applicable. Loughran v. Loughran (1934, 54 S. Ct. 684, 292 U. S. 216, 78 L. Ed. 1219).

12. Laws of Maryland

Laws of Maryland derive their force, in this district, under 2 Stat. 103, ch. 15, §§ 1, 3, 5. But this section which gives effect to those laws, does not amount to a reenactment of them, so as to sustain them, under the powers of exclusive legislation, given to Congress over this district. This section could only give to those laws that force which they previously had in this tract under the laws of Maryland. Bank of Columbia v. Okely (1819, 17 U. S. 235, 4 Wheat, 235, 4 L. Ed. 559).

By this section it is provided that the laws of the State of Maryland, as they then existed, should be and continue in force in that part of the district which was ceded by that State to the United States. Lee v. Lee (1834, 33 U. S. 44, 8 Pet. 44, 8 L. Ed. 860).

Congress by this section provided that the laws of Maryland shall be and continue in force in that part of the District which was ceded by that State to the United States. Clawans v. Sheetz (1937, 92 F. 2d 517, 67 App. D. C. 366).

The law of wills and probate as existing in Maryland on February 27, 1801, is the law of the District of Columbia except as altered by Congress. In re Lee's Estate (1948, 80 F. Supp. 293).

13. Laws of Virginia

Under this act the laws of Virginia, as they then existed, were declared to be and continue in force in that part of the District of Columbia which was ceded by that State to the United States, and by them accepted for the permanent seat of government; and all suits, process, etc., depending in the court of hustings for the town of Alexandria, were transferred to the circuit court of the District. Turner v. Fendall (1803, 5 U. S. 117, 1 Cranch. 117, 2 L. Ed. 53).

Right of Virginia to legislate for the District did not cease or determine until 27th of February 1801. Young v. Bank of Alexandria (1807, 8 U.S. 384, 4 Cranch. 384, 2 L. Ed. 655).

14. Pending suits

In the matter of procedure or practice, pending suits must be governed by the provisions of the code where the procedure does not affect the substantial rights of parties, but where the procedure does affect the substantial rights of parties, the code shall not apply as to the pending suits, but only the old law. Thus, U. S. C., title 28, §§ 512 and 513, relating to District of Columbia, were kept in force by § 1638 of the code of 1901. Costello v. Palmer (20 App. D. C. 210).

15. Selection of jurors

The code supersedes prior law relative to selection of grand and petit jurors. Clark v. United States (19 App. D. C. 295).

16. Statute of limitations

Statute of limitations, R. S. § 1044, was applicable to contempts in the District of Columbia. Gompers v. United States (1914, 34 S. Ct. 693, 233 U. S. 604, 58 L. Ed 1119).

17. Trial by jury

Common-law offense of reckless driving is a crime within the constitutional provision for a trial by jury. Colts v. District of Columbia (1918, 38 F. 2d 535, 59 App. D. C. 224).

18. Writ of certiorari

No statute has been passed enlarging the scope of the common-law writ of certiorari in the District, and when sought between private persons, the writ will be granted or denied, in the sound discretion of the court. United States ex. rel. Eure v. Borden (1936, 80 F. 2d 527, 65 App. D. C. 84).

§ 49-302. Ordinances of Washington and of levy court to remain in force.

All laws and ordinances of the City of Washington, and of the levy court of the District of Columbia, except as modified or repealed by Congress or the legislative assembly of the District since June 1, 1871, or until so modified or repealed, remain in full force. (R. S., D. C., § 91; Comp. Stat. D. C., p. 338, § 4; Feb. 11, 1895, 28 Stat. 650, ch. 79.)

NOTES TO DECISIONS

1. Legislative assembly

Act of legislative assembly, D. C., August 23, 1871, for prevention of cruelty to animals, was not repealed by section 1636 (§ 49-304) as "that section expressly saves from repeal all acts of the legislative assembly of the District of Columbia relating to 'police regulations.'" Johnson v. District Court (30 App. D. C. 520).

§ 49-303. Vestries.

All acts and parts of acts relating to the organization and powers of vestries, trustees, or other governing bodies of any religious denomination shall remain in force except in so far as the same are inconsistent with or are replaced by the provisions of this Code. (Mar. 3, 1901, ch. 854, § 1636, par. 9, as added June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 546, ch. 1329.)

§ 49-304. Repeal and savings provisions of 1901 Code.

"Ninth. Acts and parts of acts relating to the organization and powers of vestries, trustees, or other governing bodies of any religious denomination.

"All acts and parts of acts included in the foregoing exceptions, or any of them, shall remain in force except in so far as the same are inconsistent with or are replaced by the provisions of this code."

"Sec. 1637. The incorporation into this code of any general and permanent provision taken from an act making appropriations, or from an act containing other provisions of a private or temporary character, shall not repeal nor in any way affect any appropriation or any provision of a private or temporary character contained in any of said acts, but the same shall remain in force."

"Sec. 1638. The repeal by the preceding section of any statute, in whole or in part, shall not affect any act done or any right accruing or accrued or any suit or proceeding had or commenced in any civil cause before such repeal, but all rights and liabilities under the statutes or parts thereof so repealed shall continue and may be enforced in the same manner as if such repeal had not been made: Provided, That the provisions of this code relating to procedure or practice and not affecting the substantial rights of parties shall apply to pending suits or proceedings civil or criminal."

"Sec. 1639. The enactment of this code is not to affect or repeal any act of Congress which may be passed between the date of this act and the date when this act is to go into effect; and all acts of Congress that may be passed hereafter are to have full effect as if passed after the enactment of this code, and, so far as such acts may vary from or conflict with any provision contained in this code, they are to have effect as subsequent statutes and as repealing any portion of this act inconsistent therewith."

"Sec. 1640. Nothing in the repealing clause of this code contained shall be held to affect the operation or enforcement in the District of Columbia of the common law or of any British statute in force in Maryland on the twenty-seventh day of February, eighteen hundred and one, or of the principles of equity or admiralty, or of any general statute of the United States not locally inapplicable in the District of Columbia or by its terms applicable to the District of Columbia and to other places under the jurisdiction of the United States, or of any municipal ordinance or regulation, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with, or is replaced by, some provision of this code."
